De Dagen Van Sjaitan:

Transcultural Modernities Elisabeth Bekers, Sissy Helff, Daniela Merolla, 2009 The swelling flows of migration from Africa towards Europe have aroused interest not only in the socio political consequences of the migrants insistent appeals to fortress Europe but also in the artistic integration of African migrants into the cultural world of Europe While in recent years the creative output of Africans living in Europe has received attention from the media and in academia little critical consideration has been given to African migrants modes of narration and the manner in which these modes give expression to or are an expression of their creators transcultural realities Transcultural Modernities Narrating Africa in Europe responds to this need for reflection by examining the manner in which migrants compose and negotiate their Euro African affiliations in their narratives The book brings together scholars in the fields of literary and art criticism cultural studies and anthropology for an extensive interdisciplinary exchange on the specific modes of narration displayed in Euro African literatures the visual arts and cinema as well as offering ethnographic case studies The result is a wide range of reflections on how African artists writers and ordinary people living in Europe experience and explore their transcultural and or postcolonial environments and how their experiences and explorations in turn contribute to the construction of modern Euro African life worlds

Migrant Cartographies Sandra Ponzanesi, Daniela Merolla, 2005-01-01 In recent years Europe has had to constantly rethink and redefine its attitude toward new flows of immigrations Issues of boundaries and identity have been integral to this reflection Through a magnificent collection of essays Migrant Cartographies examines both sites and conflicts and the way in which forms of belonging and identity have been reinvented With careful analysis and exceptional insight this volume explores the most recent literature on migration as seen from different European viewpoints This book fills a conspicuous void in migration literature as there are no comprehensive books on migrant literatures in Europe that address the full range of complexities of colonial legacies and linguistic productions

The Transnational Family Deborah Bryceson, Ulla Vuorela, 2020-12-16 Migrant networks in the form of families associational ties and social organizations stretch across the globe connecting cultures and bridging national boundaries The effects of this global networking are vast This book is the first to stand back and explore the impact Families living outside of their original national boundaries have had and continue to have a profound influence over the flow of people goods money and information More in depth perspectives reveal how immigrants face troubling issues of cultural identity economic change political uncertainty and social welfare From an examination of nineteenth century transnational families emigrating from Europe to the Ghanaian Pentecostal diaspora in Europe today this book combines broadly based analysis with more unusual case studies to reveal the complexities that immigrants and refugees must contend with in their daily lives What are the experiences of migrant Turkish women living in Germany In what ways has religion been hybridized amongst West African Muslim migrants in Paris What are the gender relations and transnational ties amongst Bosnian refugees Never has such a topic been more relevant

Problems relating to immigrants and refugees situations in their adopted countries continue to grow This book wide ranging in its geographical and thematic scope is a highly important and timely addition to debates on transnational families immigrants and refugees The Low Countries Stichting Ons Erfdeel,2001 Lezen in het VMBO ,2007 Verschillende artikelen over het leesgedrag van vmbo leerlingen waarbij ook de rol van de bibliotheek aan bod komt Voor vakcollecties jeugdliteratuur Bijbel en Koran E.M.
