De Diplomatenkillers Death Duty:

The Diplomat ,1966 Murder in Aubagne D. M. G. Sutherland,2009-04-20 This is a study of faction lynching murder terror and counter terror during the French Revolution It examines factionalism in small towns like Aubagne near Marseille and how this produced the murders and prison massacres of 1795 8 Another major theme is the convergence of lynching from below with official Terror from above Although the Terror may have been designed to solve a national emergency in the spring of 1793 in southern France it permitted one faction to continue a struggle against its enemies a struggle that had begun earlier over local issues like taxation and governance It uses the techniques of micro history to tell the story of the small town of Aubagne It then extends the scope to places nearby like Marseille Arles and Aix en Provence Along the way it illuminates familiar topics like the activity of Clubs and revolutionary tribunals and then explores largely unexamined areas like lynching the sociology of faction the emergence of theories of violent fraternal democracy and the nature of the White Terror and continuing story bringing out the strength and resilience of English government the deep patterns of division and also the persistent capacity to come together in the face of danger The Official Washington Post Index ,1985 The French Revolution Thomas Carlyle,2019-01-24 It is I think the most radical Book that has been written in these late centuries and will give pleasure and displeasure one may expect to almost all classes of persons Carlyle Thomas Carlyle s history of the French Revolution opens with the death of Louis XV in 1774 and ends with Napoleon suppressing the insurrection of the 13th Vend mair Both in Its form and content the work was intended as a revolt against history writing itself with Carlyle exploding the eighteenth century conventions of dignified gentlemanly discourse Immersing himself in his French sources with unprecedented imaginative and intellectual engagement he recreates the upheaval in a language that evokes the chaotic atmosphere of the events In the French Revolution Carlyle achieves the most vivid historical reconstruction of the crisis of his or any other age This new edition offers an authoritative text a comprehensive record of Carlyle s French English and German sources a select bibliography of editions related writings and critical studies chronologies of both Thomas Carlyle and the French Revolution and a new and full index In addition Carlyle s work is placed in the context of both British and European history and writing and linked to a variety of major figures including Edward Gibbon Friedrich Nietzsche George Eliot John Stuart Mill Hegel and R G Collingwood The Japan Chronicle ,1914 The Fateful Journey Joost Willink,2025-10-01 This compelling richly illustrated work recounts the African journeys of the intrepid Dutch traveller Alexine Tinne 1835 1869 Heiress to a huge fortune she was at the time the richest woman in the country and bored with the royal court intrigues in The Hague Tinne left for Egypt and Sudan accompanied by her mother Henriette Tinne Van Capellen ultimately settling in Khartoum On her expedition in 1862 64 Tinne was joined by the German zoologist Theodor von Heuglin the whole party set out for the as yet uncharted Bahr el Ghazal hoping to explore that region and ascertain how far westward the Nile basin extended After four years of research in the Tinne archives including hitherto unknown correspondence photos and other documents Willink presents a dramatic account of Tinne s eventful expedition casting new light on the events which ultimately ended with Tinne s murder most likely by the tribesmen who believed there was gold hidden in her water tanks In addition Willink casts a new light on the excitement and the dangers of travel in colonial Africa s uncharted territories before and after Tinne s enterprise revealing to what extent her gruesome death had been foreshadowed in the earlier years and how it would reverberate in the years to come An accomplished photographer and collector of artefacts Tinne left a wealth of material from her travels and many items are reproduced here in colour bearing testimony to her fascination with Africa The New York Times Index ,1914
