The Interior, 1922 Issues for Jan 12 1888 Jan 1889 include monthly Magazine supplement Race and Ethnicity Kathleen Odell Korgen, Maxine P. Atkinson, 2024-11-21 Race and Ethnicity Sociology in Action is an innovative text that combines comprehensive coverage of race and ethnicity content with active learning exercises seamlessly integrated into the chapters The book is written by a team of experienced instructors who use active learning techniques in their own classrooms These contributors expertly weave together content material active learning exercises discussion questions real world examples of sociologists in action and information on careers that use sociology The Second Edition includes updated data figures and examples as well as new information on many topics including interracial relationships immigrant groups diversity among Asian Americans racial discrimination in housing and building coalitions for racial justice Refuge and Resilience Laura Simich, Lisa Andermann, 2014-06-05 Taking an interdisciplinary approach and focusing on the social and psychological resources that promote resilience among forced migrants this book presents theory and evidence about what keeps refugees healthy during resettlement The book draws on contributions from cultural psychiatry anthropology ethics nursing psychiatric epidemiology sociology and social work Concern about immigrant mental health and social integration in resettlement countries has given rise to public debates that challenge scientists and policy makers to assemble facts and solutions to perceived problems Since the 1980s refugee mental health research has been productive but arguably overly focused on mental disorders and problems rather than solutions Social science perspectives are not well integrated with medical science and treatment which is at odds with social reality and underlies inadequacy and fragmentation in policy and service delivery Research and practice that contribute to positive refugee mental health from Canada and the U S show that refugee mental health promotion must take into account social and policy contexts of immigration and health care in addition to medical issues Despite traumatic experiences most refugees are not mentally ill in a clinical sense and those who do need medical attention often do not receive appropriate care As recent studies show social and cultural determinants of health may play a larger role in refugee health and adaptation outcomes than do biological factors or pre migration experiences This book's goal therefore is to broaden the refugee mental health field with social and cultural perspectives on resilience and mental health Racist America Joe R. Feagin, 2014-01-21 This third edition of Joe R Feagin's Racist America is significantly revised and updated with an eye toward racism issues arising regularly in our contemporary era This edition incorporates more than two hundred recent research studies and reports on U S racial issues that update and enhance all the last edition's chapters It expands the discussion and data on concepts such as the white racial frame and systemic racism from research studies by Feagin and his colleagues The author has further polished the book to make it yet more readable for undergraduates including eliminating repetitive materials adding headings and more cross referencing and adding new examples anecdotes and narratives about contemporary racism Industrial and Managerial Solutions for Tourism Enterprises Akbaba, Atilla, Altıntaş, Volkan, 2020-02-07 The tourism and hospitality industries are seeing continued success
