Gutsche, Jr., 2017-04-20 Media Control News as an Institution of Power and Social Control challenges traditional and even some radical perceptions of how the news works While it s clear that journalists don t operate objectively reporters don t just cover news but they make it Media Control goes a step further by arguing that the cultural institution of news approaches and presents everyday information from particular and dominant cultural positions that benefit the power elite From analysing how the press operate as police agents by conducting surveillance and instituting social order through its coverage of crime and police action to bolstering private business and neoliberal principles by covering the news through notions of boosterism Media Control presents the news through a cultural lens Robert E Gutsche Jr introduces or advances readers applications of critical race theory and cultural studies scholarship to explore cultural meanings within news coverage of police action the criminal justice system and embedding into the news democratic values that are later used by the power elite to oppress and repress portions of the citizenry Media Control helps the reader explicate how the power elite use the press and the veil of the Fourth Estate to further white ideologies and American Imperialism The Presumption D.

Marvin Jones,2024-05-02 This powerful book on racism in the United States argues that a threatening narrative originating in slavery continues to link Black people to inferiority dangerousness and crime causing them to be presumed guilty by society and U S legal systems Why are Black people stopped arrested and shot by police at such a high rate Why are they portrayed in the media as gangbangers and urban thugs D Marvin Jones writes that the problem of race lies in the way Blackness has been inextricably knotted together in our culture with presumptions In the era of segregation this was a presumption of inferiority but in our era it is primarily a presumption of dangerousness or criminality In chapters on slavery urban spaces the drug war media portrayals and white spaces he shows how the presumption of guilt continues to shape the treatment of Black people in the United States Arguing that this presumption is not simply a matter of hate on the part of individuals but instead a social process linked to a widely shared racial ideology The Presumption points out the continuation of racial caste in the United States as a crisis for democracy and provides a blueprint for a kind of second Reconstruction The understanding how a visual grammar of citizenship and hence American identity itself has been constructed Enfleshing Theology Michele Saracino, Robert J. Rivera, 2018-10-31 Enfleshing Theology honors and engages the life work of M Shawn Copeland whose theology is groundbreaking and prophetic traversing the fields of Catholic Theology Black Theology Womanist Thought and Semiotics The book opens with a brief introduction and then moves to an interview with Copeland which connects her theology to her life stories The conversation with Copeland also provides a backdrop to the seventeen essays that follow extending Copeland's theological worldview The contributions are divided according to the following sections embodiment discipleship and politics The essays in the section entitled Engaging Embodiment critically reflect on the importance of embodiment in Christian theology and contemporary culture Following Copeland's lead authors in this section theorize and theologize the body particularly but not limited to Black women's bodies as a locus theologicus that reveals mediates and shapes the splendor and suffering reality of human existence The next section entitled Engaging Discipleship focuses on the concrete challenges of following Jesus in today's world The essays included in this section reflect on Copeland's focus on Jesus particularity in terms of his solidarity with and for others Discipleship is about modeling and mentoring so scholars in this section also comment on Copeland's contribution to teaching and pedagogy The last section entitled Engaging the Political interrogates the political implications of the theological It is noteworthy that there are two trajectories of the political here one is Copeland's development of political theology through the lens of Canadian Jesuit theologian Bernard Lonergan The other trajectory focuses on the work of theology in contemporary art and politics These three sections are fluid and overlap with one another Several of the articles on embodiment speak to questions of solidarity and a few of the essays on discipleship clearly present as political The ways in which each of the contributions in this volume overlap with each other attests to the complex nature of doing constructive theology today and even more how Copeland's work is at the forefront of that multi layered polyvalent intersectional theological work Endless Holocausts David Michael Smith, 2023-01-01 An argument against the myth of American exceptionalism Endless Holocausts Mass Death in the History of the United States Empire helps us to come to terms with what we have long suspected the rise of the U S Empire has relied upon an almost unimaginable loss of life from its inception during the European colonial period to the present And yet in the face of a series of endless holocausts at home and abroad the doctrine of American exceptionalism has plagued the globe for over a century However much the ruling class insists on U S superiority we find ourselves in the midst of a sea change Perpetual wars deteriorating economic conditions the resurgence of white supremacy and the rise of the Far Right have led millions of people to abandon their illusions about this country Never before have so many people rejected or questioned traditional platitudes about the United States In Endless Holocausts author David Michael Smith demolishes the myth of exceptionalism by demonstrating that manifold forms of mass death far from being unfortunate exceptions to an otherwise benign historical record have been indispensable in the rise of the wealthiest and most powerful imperium in the history of the world At the same time Smith points to an extraordinary history of resistance by Indigenous peoples people of African descent people in other nations brutalized by U S imperialism workers and democratic minded people around the world determined to fight for common dignity and the sake of the greater good Policing Protest Paul A.

Passavant, 2021-06-28 In Policing Protest Paul A Passavant explores how the policing of protest in the United States has become increasingly hostile since the late 1990s moving away from strategies that protect protesters toward militaristic practices designed to suppress protests He identifies reactions to three interrelated crises that converged to institutionalize this new mode of policing the political mobilization of marginalized social groups in the Civil Rights era that led to a perceived crisis of democracy the urban fiscal crisis of the 1970s and a crime crisis that was associated with protests and civil disobedience of the 1960s As Passavant demonstrates these reactions are all haunted by the figure of black insurrection which continues to shape policing of protest and surveillance notably in response to the Black Lives Matter movement Ultimately Passavant argues this trend of violent policing strategies against protesters is evidence of the emergence of a post democratic state in the United States
