The Self on the Shelf Gary

Greenberg,1994-01-01 The Self on the Shelf examines the cultural and philosophical determinants of popular recovery books Greenberg argues that this literature can be read as documents of the prevailing understanding of the self in American society The construction of the self promoted by recovery literature is seen as a nihilistic one insofar as it denies the significance of what continental philosophy calls the Other In this sense the self help books are correct in their assertion that we have lost sight of how to love but their proposed solution shows up as a recapitulation and strengthening of the conditions that gave rise to this situation in the first place Greenberg s critique provides a commentary on the difficulties that face our culture in achieving any sense of meaningful community and on the way that this problem surfaces in a highly popular discourse

Heroine Abuse Thomas Gaiton Marullo, 2015-10-15 Fyodor Dostoevsky's first novel Netochka Nezvanova written in 1849 remains the least studied and understood of the writer's long fiction but it was a seedbed for many topics and themes that became hallmarks of his major works Specifically Netochka Nezvanova was the first in Dostoevsky's corpus to focus on the psychology of children and the first to feature a woman in a leading and narrative role It was also the first work in Russian literature to deal with problems of the family In Heroine Abuse Thomas Marullo contends that Netochka Nezvanova also provides a striking example of what psychologists today call codependency the ways often deviant and destructive in which individuals bond with people places and things as well as with images and ideas to cope with the vicissitudes of life Marullo shows how at age twenty eight Dostoevsky intuited and illustrated the workings of relationship addiction almost a century and a half before it became the scholarly focus of practitioners of mental health The moral monsters infernal women children adults and adult children who populate Netochka Nezvanova seek codependence in people places and things and in images ideas and ideals to satiate cravings for love dominance and control as well as to indulge in narcissism sexual perversion and other aberrant or alternative behaviors Indeed in no other work would Dostoevsky examine such phenomena as pedophilia and lesbianism with such abandon Racing from tie to tie bond to bond and caught in a debilitating loop that they claim to detest but sadomasochistically enjoy the characters in Netochka Nezvanova wreak havoc on themselves and the world They do so moreover with impunity their addictions moving them from momentary exultation as self-styled extraordinary men and women through prolonged darkness and despair and once again to old and new addictions for physical and emotional release Readers of Heroine Abuse will see Netochka Nezvanova as a timeless model in depicting codependency in the world of the twenty first century as it did in St Petersburg in 1849 Marullo's original work will appeal to scholars and students of Russian and comparative fiction to doctors psychologists and therapists to laymen and women interested in relationship addiction and finally to codependents and relationship addicts of all types
