100 Broadway Lane
New Parkland, CA, 91010

Dear Mr. Carter,

This letter is to inform you that I am resigning my position as assistant coach of the Tornadoes effective immediately. I am going to pursue my dreams and take the head coaching job with the Almandale Oranges in the International League. It is the kind of job I have wanted my entire life and I am going to take the opportunity.

I want to take this moment to thank you sincerely for the opportunity you and Head Coach Pastor have given to me over the past four years. Without your guidance and belief in my abilities, I would have never received the exposure I needed to get the chance to be a head coach. Since I know that Coach Pastor will be in Brimsdale for a while, I realize that my best chance to become a head coach is outside of the Tornadoes organization.

I have already spoken to the team and Coach Pastor and they have all wished me well. If you need to contact me for any reason at all, you can call me at 555-221-3211 or email me at scottnolan@email.com. Thank you again for the opportunity.

Sincerely Yours,

Scott W. Nolan

A Life of Ups and Downs and Twist and Turns of a Hispanic Family Ruben Garcia, 2019-11-20 The family unit as we know it is disintegrating before our eyes Why is this an alarming problem Because it is the family unit that shapes and molds us into the individuals that we are today In this book I try to share with you not only my triumphs and successes but my hardships and failures as well Born into an Hispanic family life has given me a unique perspective of the world around us It has engulfed me with the good and bad of what our society has to offer On the negative side I have tried to dismiss the stereotyping that unavoidably is attached to my race I have tried to overcome the prejudices that still linger today On the positive side I have learned to appreciate and respect the wonderful customs and traditions that my culture permeates As an adolescent my parents instilled in me the value of growing up in the Catholic faith As an athlete my father taught me the value of hard work grit and determination As a teacher my brother Doug taught me the value of shaping and molding the minds of our youth As a coach I learned the values of being a man of integrity adhering always to a code of moral conduct Be a man of your word my father would always tell me Be a role model and be willing to lead by example As a senior citizen I have learned to appreciate the life that God has blessed me with I ask you now what defines you as an individual How do you react to the ups and downs in your life How will you navigate the twists and turns that life drops at your doorstep Go forth and make a difference in the world

A Coach's Life Dan Kellams, 2011-09-22 Playing a sport for Coach Les Hipple meant a life of rigor clean living modest behavior and self denial even so many boys were eager to meet these demands for the right to play on one of Hipple's teams In A Coach's Life author

Dan Kellams narrates the story of one of the greatest high school coaches in Iowa's history an extraordinary man who lived according to the principles he taught even when it meant losing a game or a championship or the job he loved Kellams a former Hipple athlete offers a vivid portrait of a coach who imposed stern discipline on hundreds of boys and in the process transformed them into champions A Coach's Life recalls Hipple's eighty six full years focusing on his long career at Marion High School in Iowa where he led his Indians to championships in football basketball track and cross country giving the town its most glorious years in sports Many young men learned unforgettable life lessons they later passed on to others around the world Meticulously researched this biography is set against the backdrop of small town America during the 1940s and 1950s Its poignant stories include those of a superb athlete who died on the verge of greatness a school controversy that turned brother against brother and a changing society that trapped a great coach in the vise of his own principles Part Hoosiers and part Our Town Tough and to the point Phil Grose author of South Carolina on the Brink American Coach Ivan Maisel, 2025-09-16 Award winning sportswriter Ivan Maisel brings the forgotten legend of Notre Dame head football coach Frank Leahy back to life based on rare and complete access to Fighting Irish football historical archives and the Leahy family When Frank Leahy retired from Notre Dame after the 1953 season he had the second best record in the history of the game 107 13 9 864 second only to Knute Rockne his college coach and mentor Seven decades later he still does Rockne created the image of Notre Dame then a small Catholic university in a remote town in northern Indiana as the premier college football program in the nation But it was Leahy who secured that image with six undefeated seasons and four national championships in an 11 season span By achievement alone Leahy should be as beloved as Rockne who nearly a century after his tragic death remains a legend Yet Leahy is virtually forgotten today in many ways a victim of his own insatiable need to compete and win The University of Notre Dame granted Ivan Maisel rare and complete access to its voluminous cache of historical material and Maisel has the cooperation of Leahy's family enabling him to tell the rich story of an archetypal coach who was a celebrity in his day Leahy made the cover of Time magazine and befriended presidents and movie stars alike Leahy brought innovation to a program reluctant to change anything Rockne had done But Leahy rankled opposing coaches and clashed with the priests at Notre Dame who sought to make the university as elite in academia as it had become on the field These conflicts coupled with the toll that Leahy's innate drive demanded of his health brought his career to a premature end hampering his legacy in the years to come And what a legacy only Nick Saban and Bear Bryant have won more national titles The records of iconic coaches such as Bobby Bowden Woody Hayes and Eddie Robinson pale in comparison Not only the Notre Dame fanbase but all college football fans will be hungry to rediscover a man and an era the story of how Frank Leahy cemented Notre Dame's status as the defining program of college football Real Sports Reporting Abraham Aamidor, 2003-09-24 If you want to know how something is done why not ask an expert For Real Sports Reporting journalist Abraham Aamidor recruited top sportswriters and editors from major media outlets including the Chicago Tribune Orlando
