Masterpieces of Illumination: Codices Illustres the World's Most Famous Illuminated Manuscripts 400 to 1600 (Anniversary, Special). Ingo F. Walther, 2007-09-19 Patristic Perspectives on Luke's Transfiguration Peter Anthony, 2022-03-24 Peter Anthony explores how visionary elements in Luke s Gospel had a particular influence on early interpretation of the Transfiguration by examining the rich hermeneutical traditions that emerged particularly in the Latin West as the Transfiguration was first depicted visually in art Anthony begins by comparing the visual and visionary culture of antiquity with that of the present and their differing interpretations of the Transfiguration He then examines the Transfiguration texts in the synoptic gospels and their interpretation in modern scholarship and the reception of the Transfiguration in 2 Peter the Apocalypse of Peter and the Acts of Peter Tertullian and Origen Proceeding to look at interpretations found in the Greek East and the Latin West Anthony finally discusses the earliest visual depictions of the Transfiguration from the sixth century onward drawn from a wealth of different art forms Anthony concludes that early commentators and artists understanding of how we see and visualise and therefore how the Transfiguration was apprehended is closer to that of the writers of the New Testament than many modern interpreters is Matthew's Account of the Massacre of the Innocents in Light of its Reception History Sung J. Cho, 2021-10-21 Sung Cho addresses the seeming contradiction of Herod the Great s massacre in Matthew 2 16 18 questioning why such a tragedy had to occur why it was included in the good news of Jesus and what connection it has to ancient prophecies In creating a reception history of the Massacre of the Innocents Cho progresses through two millennia worth of interpretation and depiction to highlight key works for discussion Beginning with a close reading of Matthew 2 16 18 Cho moves to analyse depictions of the tragedy in the Early Patristic Tradition from the sixth century to the early modern period and thus to the present day complete with an examination of visual interpretations of the massacre Cho s examination provides a positive step to understanding the depths of human suffering with the help of many diverse perspectives The Art of the Portrait Norbert Schneider, 2002 The Mind of the Book Alastair Fowler, 2017-02-09 Alastair Fowler presents a fascinating study of title pages printed in England from the early modern period to the nineteenth century He examines pictorial title pages in the context of the History of the Book for the first time The first part of The Mind of the Book explores the forerunner of the frontispiece in late antiquity the use of frames and borders in title pages portraits printers devices emblematic title pages of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries especially attending to explanatory verses and arcane features such as chronograms title pages as memory prompts and eighteenth and nineteenth century title pages tracing the rejection of emblematic and symbolic features and the introduction of unadorned unpictorial title pages The second part of the book presents illustrations of sixteen significant title pages with commentaries ranging from Chaucer's Works in 1532 through Bacon's Instauratio Magna in 1620 Dicken's The Mystery of Edwin Drood in 1870 and arriving back at Chaucer with Edward Burnes Jones's illustrated title page for the Works of 1896

The Manuscripts Club Christopher de Hamel, 2025-11-11 A New York Times Book Review Editors Choice The acclaimed author of Meetings with Remarkable Manuscripts introduces us to the extraordinary keepers and companions of medieval manuscripts over a thousand years of history The illuminated manuscripts of the Middle Ages are among the greatest works of European art and literature We are dazzled by them and recognize their crucial role in the transmission of knowledge However we generally think much less about the countless men and women who made collected and preserved them through the centuries and to whom they owe their existence This entrancing book describes some of the extraordinary people who have spent their lives among illuminated manuscripts over the last thousand years a monk in Normandy a prince of France a Florentine bookseller an English antiquary a rabbi from central Europe a French priest a Keeper at the British Museum a Greek forger a German polymath a British connoisseur and the woman who created the most spectacular library in America all of them members of what Christopher de Hamel calls the Manuscripts Club This exhilarating fraternity and the fellow enthusiasts who come with it throw new light on how manuscripts have survived and been used by very different kinds of people in many different circumstances Christopher de Hamel s unexpected connections and discoveries reveal a passion that crosses the boundaries of time We understand the manuscripts themselves better by knowing who their keepers and companions have been In 1850 or thereabouts John Ruskin bought his first manuscript at a bookseller s in a back alley This was his reaction The new worlds which every leaf of this book opened to me and the joy I had in counting their letters and unravelling their arabesques as if they had all been of beaten gold as many of them were cannot be told The members of de Hamel s club share many such wonders which he brings to us with scholarship style and a lifetime s experience
