Common Agricultural Policy Contemporary European Studies:

Common Agricultural Policy Robert Ackrill, 2000-11-01 The CAP has traditionally been at the core of the European Communities and even now consumes half of the European Union's budget This book emphasizes the long term link between the CAP and the budget It examines the aims of the Common Agricultural Policy as set out in the Treaty of Rome and discusses to what extent they have been achieved and whether they are relevant to the 21st century The factors that have shaped the 1992 and 1999 CAP reforms are outlined with the latter in particular demonstrating the budget's effect on CAP and CAP reforms The internationalization of CAP with constraints being placed on it by the World Trade Organization is another important factor covered by the book The 1999 reforms are measured against what may be allowed by the WTO and the demands of EU enlargement This title is published in conjunction with UACES the University Association for

This book explores how the EU externally governs through agriculture and rural development and how this external governance shapes rural spaces in Georgia Analysing two EU policy instruments Geographical Indications and the LEADER rural development programme the book develops a novel way of studying the consequences of EU external actions on the ground by bringing in sociological rural studies and political geography concepts of rural space In doing so it analyses the often less visible processes at local levels and in rural areas and proposes how to improve analyses of EU external actions more generally This book will be of key interest to scholars and students of EU external policy EU foreign policy agricultural and rural development post Soviet politics and more broadly to EU studies The Common Agricultural Policy Joan Pearce, 2023-07-26 Originally published in 1981 at a time when the EEC's Common Agricultural Policy had remained largely unchanged this book examines the criticisms of the CAP and analyses the pressures emanating from the budget and the various options which were available for tackling them It then outlines the approaches that individual member states and others were likely to adopt and assesses whether the need for action on the budget will be used as an opportunity to revise the CAP Agriculture Under the Common Agricultural Policy Ian R. Bowler,1985 Contemporary Europe William Outhwaite,2016-10-04 Europe is one of the most dynamic and interesting areas of the world pioneering in the European Union a new form of governance for half a billion people represented in the world's first directly elected transnational parliament This book situates the European Union in a broader European global historical and geographical context providing a readable presentation of the most important facts and drawing on the theoretical approaches which have transformed the study of contemporary Europe over the past two decades The European Union is still on the road to what has been called an unknown destination and this book presents its economic political legal and social trajectory from the middle of the last century to the present Contemporary Europe covers some of these issues in an interdisciplinary framework aiming to situate the development of the European Union in a broader context of pan European and global processes Europe has been cut down to size but it does not have to become a global backwater and the study of contemporary Europe's institutional reality does not have to be boring The book counter this misperception conveying the essential facts and theories of contemporary European reality in a clear and approachable analysis It will serve as a readable introduction both to the academic field of European studies and to contemporary Europe itself The European Union and the Asia-Pacific Natalia Chaban,Martin Holland,2008-05-22 Identifies measures and compares public awareness and perceptions of the EU within the Asia Pacific region and deals with the public perception of the EU outside the Union and the role of the media in shaping such perceptions Ethics, Law and Society Jennifer Gunning,2017-07-28 This key collection brings together a selection of papers commissioned and published by the Cardiff Centre for Ethics Law Society It incorporates contributions from a group of international experts along with a selection of short opinion pieces written in response to specific ethical issues The collection addresses issues arising in biomedical and medical ethics ranging from assisted reproductive technologies to the role of clinical ethics committees It examines broader societal issues with particular emphasis on sustainability and the environment and also focuses on issues of human rights in current global contexts The contributors collect responses to issues arising from high profile cases such as the legitimacy of war in Iraq to physician related suicide The volume will provide a valuable resource for practitioners and academics with an interest in ethics across a range of disciplines Agriculture and the European Community John S. Marsh,Pamela J. Swanney,2019-08-06 First published in 1980 From the earliest beginnings of the European Economic Community it was recognised that a common market for agriculture would be one of the basic prerequisites for workable economic unity And yet the Common Agricultural Policy CAP remained a subject of much controversy and debate The CAP more than any other element of European policy was seen to test the true depth of the commitment shown by Community members to the practice as well as the principle of economic integration Agriculture and the European Community examines the reasons for the existence of the CAP and its format It outlines the main instruments price and structural policy and the changing emphasis between them It discusses in turn the effects of the CAP on producers income levels and on consumer prices how far it had fulfilled the promises of the Treaty of Rome the implications of the policy for third country trade and its place within the Community as a whole The study argues that although incomes of Community farmers had improved this is not simply the result of the CAP nor was the geographical distribution of benefit in terms of farming income satisfactory The policy has achieved a degree of success in securing food supplies and stabilising prices but the cost to the consumer has been high Knowledge of the CAP had become almost essential to any understanding of modern European affairs Agriculture and the European Community will serve as a straightforward introduction to the policy for students approaching the subject for the first time especially in departments of Agricultural Economics European Studies and Political Science

Policy-Making in the European Union Helen S. Wallace, Mark A. Pollack, Alasdair R. Young, 2025 The ninth edition of Policy Making in the European Union offers students and scholars a comprehensive understanding of the processes and institutions involved in EU policy making It particularly examines these processes in a more politicized context Gives students a solid grounding in theories and empirics of EU policy making Details the processes and institutions central to EU policy making Analyses a wide range of policy areas in greater detail than any competing text considering substantive material in both a practical and theoretical context Concludes with a clear assessment of the challenges that have shaped and will continue to shape policy making including the politicization of the EU Brexit geopolitical shifts and Covid 19 New to this edition Detailed assessment of the implications of greater geopolitical contestation including Russia s invasion of Ukraine in 2022 Evaluation of the implications of the UK s departure for EU policy making Coverage of the EU s response to the Covid 19 pandemic and what it reveals about EU policy making
