Creation And Fall Temptation Two Biblical Studies:

Creation and Fall Temptation Dietrich Bonhoeffer, 1997-03-12 In this enlightening study renowned twentieth century theologian Dietrich Bonhoeffer offers a careful textual analysis of the story of creation approaching the biblical tale of Genesis with the eye of a philosopher and the soul of a true Christian Creation and Fall is Bonhoeffer's lucid brilliant analysis of the first three chapters of Genesis Here he discusses the seeming scientific naiveté behind the creation story God's love and goodness and humanity's creation its free will and its blessedness Bonhoeffer also tackles difficult questions that are raised from the first book of the Bible questions about the seemingly redundant second story of creation about God's own beginning about the source of the light that was created the first day The author then expounds upon Adam and Eve's fall from grace How could they creatures made in God's image have thought to oppose God so foully Where did the first evil come from How did humanity lose its right to live in paradise In Temptation Bonhoeffer questions how temptation appeared in the midst of Eden's innocence and he explores the very nature of evil Bonhoeffer explains that Jesus Christ helps us to understand and conquer physical and spiritual temptation through His grace and goodness Creation and Fall Dietrich

Bonhoeffer, 1983-01-01 Receiver, Bearer, and Giver of God's Spirit Leopoldo A. Sánchez, 2015-03-27 What difference does the Spirit make in the life of Jesus and in our lives Answering that question without doing away with the divine dignity of Christ has been a challenge in the distant and recent past But this need not be the case The current work is a contribution to the growing field of Spirit Christology which seeks to enrich the classic Logos Christology of the ecumenical Councils with a Spirit oriented trajectory Sanchez tests the productivity of a Spirit Christology as a theological lens for assessing the main events of Jesus' life and mission accounts of the atonement the significance of the incarnation the concepts of person and relation and models of the Trinity Seeing Christ as the privileged locus of the Spirit also has implications for the church's life in the Spirit Sanchez shows how a Spirit Christology fosters Christian practices such as proclamation prayer and sanctification Among the highlights of this work the reader will note the author's assessment of early church fathers readings of the place of the Spirit in the anointing of Jesus a constructive proposal towards the complementarity of Logos and Spirit Christologies ecumenical engagement with various theological traditions in the East and the West and the first constructive assessment of the field informed by the Lutheran tradition A Church Wide Enough for Everyone Steven H.

Propp, 2018-02-03 Robert Schaeffer and Douglas West are best friends living in Oklahoma in 1963 when they discover that they both sense a calling to become ministers in a mainline Christian denomination But from seminary and their early years in ministry to their golden years looking back on what it takes to lead a congregation a stimulating sometimes puzzling yet often inspirational world of theological controversies and congregational concerns would unfold for these two men of God A Church Wide Enough for Everyone follows these two men on their journey to demonstrate the continuing relevance of the Christian faith in a postmodern world After moving to Berkeley California to attend college and seminary they have little time to ponder the vast social changes taking place before they immediately enter into intensive critical study of the Bible and Christian theology And as Robert is then thrust into the ordained ministry with his wife Faye both men must in their own ways face the political cultural and ideological pressures of each passing decade responding to challenges from both within the church and from outsiders Are mainline churches and Christian theology dead Or might they be revitalized in the current century A Church Wide Enough for Everyone and the inspired journeys of two ministers offers a window into how this revitalization and new understanding is possible

Sculptor Spirit Leopoldo A. Sánchez M.,2019-02-05 Like the work of an artist who molds a lump of clay the Spirit's sanctifying work lies in shaping people into the image of Christ Avoiding either a Spirit only or a Spirit void theology Leopoldo Sánchez carefully crafts a Spirit Christology which considers the role of God's Spirit in the life and mission of Jesus and leads to five distinct models of sanctification that can help Christians discern how the Spirit is at work in our lives

Lying and Christian Ethics Christopher O. Tollefsen,2014-04-28 This book defends the controversial absolute view of lying which maintains that an assertion contrary to the speaker's mind is always wrong regardless of the speaker's intentions Whereas most people believe that a lie told for a good cause such as protecting Jews from discovery by Nazis is morally acceptable Christopher Tollefsen argues that Christians should support the absolute view He looks back to the writings of Augustine and Aquinas to illustrate that lying violates the basic human goods of integrity and sociality and severely compromises the values of religion and truth He critiques the comparatively permissive views espoused by Cassian Bonhoeffer and Niebuhr and argues that lies often jeopardize the good causes for which they are told Beyond framing a moral absolute against lying this book explores the questions of to whom we owe the truth and when and what steps we may take when we should not give it

Contemplative Prayer for Christians with Chronic Worry Joshua J. Knabb,Thomas V. Frederick,2017-02-17 Contemplative Prayer for Christians with Chronic Worry presents an eight week approach for working with recurrent worry Each chapter offers an introduction for the week goals techniques and homework Six free audio recordings are also available to download for use when practicing the guided meditations Clinicians and their clients will find that the workbook helps them explore ways to lessen daily worries through contemplative prayer Relying on scriptural support the contemplative Christian tradition and psychological science clients will learn how to sit in silence with God trusting in him during moments of uncertainty worry and anxiety

A Christian Approach to Work and Family Burnout Thomas V. Frederick,Scott E. Dunbar,2019-08-27 In A Christian Approach to Work and Family Burnout Calling Caring and Connecting Thomas V Frederick and Scott E Dunbar provide a Christian spiritual model to prevent and cope with burnout caused by the workplace and conflict with family Coupled with indifference and lack of urgency burnout eliminates a sense of purposefulness and results in psychological depletion To counter this Frederick and Dunbar stress the importance of connecting with God in order to understand intrinsic motivations and redefine work as a calling and means to care for others

Human Difference Andrew Barron,2024-08-06 Living in proximity to human disability with a son who has Down

Syndrome Andrew Barron has come to understand that not only do we live in a world of human difference but that God wants us to live in this kind of world for our own flourishing Human Difference is an extended meditation on that experience and a reflection on the nature of human care and hospitality Barron seeks to understand and embrace the uncertainty that comes with living in proximity to difference and disability and reflects on how we might better cope with and ultimately be enriched by its ambiguity He undertakes a new approach to difference we must be ready to venture into uncomfortable territory to put out into the deep water and to actively seek out an intimate and open closeness with difference and disability Christian Psychotherapy in Context Joshua J. Knabb, Eric L. Johnson, M. Todd Bates, Timothy A. Sisemore, 2019-03-29 Christian Psychotherapy in Context combines theology with the latest research in clinical psychology to equip mental health practitioners to meet the unique psychological and spiritual needs of Christian clients Encouraging therapists to operate from within a Christian framework the authors explore the intersection between a Christian worldview and clients emotional struggles drawing from sources including both foundational theological texts and the common factors psychotherapy literature Written collaboratively by two clinical psychologists an academic psychologist and a theologian this book paves the way for psychotherapeutic practice that builds on Christian principles as the foundation rather than merely adding them to treatment as an afterthought
