Coal Mountain Elementary Mark Nowak, 2009 A singular genre defying treatise from one of America's most innovative political poets Coal Mountain Elementary remixes verbatim testimony from the surviving Sago West Virginia miners and rescue teams the American Coal Foundation's curriculum for schoolchildren newspaper accounts of mining disasters in China and full color photographs of Chinese miners by renowned photojournalist Ian Teh A poet and labor activist heralded by Adrienne Rich for regenerating the rich tradition of working class literature Mark Nowak regularly leads transnational poetry workshops between American and international trade unions The author of Revenants and Shut Up Shut Down he is also a frequent contributor to the Poetry Foundation's Harriet blog Inciting Poetics Jeanne Heuving, Tyrone Williams, 2019-06-15 The essays in Inciting Poetics provide provocative answers to the book's opening question What are poetics now Authored by some of the most important contemporary poets and critics the essays present new theoretical and practical approaches to poetry and poetics that address current topics and approaches in the field as well as provide fresh readings of a number of canonical poets The four sections What is Poetics Critical Interventions Cross Cultural Imperatives and Digital Capital and Institutional Frames create a basis on which both experienced readers and newcomers can build an understanding of how to think and write about poetry The diverse voices throughout the collection are both informative and accessible and offer a rich exploration of multiple approaches to thinking and writing about poetry today

Bring Your Own Technology Mal Lee, Martin Levins, 2013-10-01 In time all schools in the developed world will move to students using their personal mobile technology in class rather than it being provided by the school It is not a case of if but when This book is designed to provide teachers and parents alike an insight into the bring your own technology BYOT revolution sweeping across entire school communities in Australia the US and UK and explain the immense implications of these developments BYOT poses potential educational social development economic technological and political opportunities that will soon fundamentally change the nature of schooling teaching the technology used home school relations and the resourcing of schools This book drawing on the work of the path finding schools and education authorities in the UK US and Australia is designed to provide teachers and parents alike an insight into Why the development needs to be embraced The imperative of authentic collaboration between home and school What each school needs to do to ready itself How to deal with the raft of options The kind of whole school community implementation strategy required The practicalities of achieving sustained total student usage and the many dividends that will then flow

Contested Records Michael Leong, 2020-05-13 Why have so many contemporary poets turned to source material from newspapers to governmental records as inspiration for their poetry How can citational poems offer a means of social engagement Contested Records analyzes how some of the most well known twenty first century North American poets work with fraught documents Whether it's the legal paperwork detailing the murder of 132 African captives state transcriptions of the last words of death row inmates or testimony from miners and rescue workers about a fatal mine disaster author Michael Leong reveals that much of the power of contemporary poetry rests in its potential to select adapt evaluate and extend public documentation Examining the use of documents in the works of Kenneth Goldsmith Vanessa Place Amiri Baraka Claudia Rankine M NourbeSe Philip and others Leong reveals how official records can evoke a wide range of emotions from hatred to veneration from indifference to empathy from desire to disgust He looks at techniques such as collage plagiarism re reporting and textual outsourcing and evaluates some of the most loved and reviled contemporary North American poems Ultimately Leong finds that if bureaucracy and documentation have the power to police and traumatize through the exercise of state power then so too can document based poetry function as an unofficial counterhegemonic and popular practice that authenticates marginalized experiences at the fringes of our cultural memory

Contemporary Poetry Nerys Williams,2011-04-06 Discussing the work of more than 60 poets from the US UK Ireland Australia New Zealand and the Caribbean Nerys Williams guides students through the key ideas and movements in the study of poetry today

Profile Pieces Sue Joseph,Richard Lance Keeble,2015-10-14 This book examines the history theory and journalistic practice of profile writing Profiles and the practice of writing them are of increasing interest to scholars of journalism because conflicts between the interviewer and the subject exemplify the changing nature of journalism itself While the subject often through the medium of their press representative struggles to retain control of the interview space the journalist seeks to subvert it This interesting and multi layered interaction however has rarely been subject to critical scrutiny partly because profiles have traditionally been regarded as public relations exercises or as soft journalism However chapters in this volume reveal not only that profiling has historically taken many different forms but that the idea of the interview as a contested space has applications beyond the subject of celebrated individuals The volume looks at the profile s historical beginnings at the contemporary manufacture of celebrity versus the ordinary at profiling communities countries and movements at profiling the destitute at sporting personalities and finally at profiling and trauma

Climate Change, Literature, and Environmental Justice Janet Fiskio,2021-04-22 This book shows how the discourse of climate change emerges within histories of colonization enslavement and revolution By placing climate change within the longer histories of enslavement and settler colonialism Janet Fiskio reveals the connections between climate change activism and enslavement genocide imperialism white supremacy incarceration Organized around three themes speculative pasts and futures practices of dissent mourning and repair and everyday inhabitation and social care Climate Change Literature and Environmental Justice shows the ways that frontline communities resist environmental racism and protect and repair the world It provides analysis of expressive cultures including literature dance protest movements oral history and cooking utilizing decolonial and reparative theories It offers readings of key figures such as Octavia Butler Louise Erdrich Winona LaDuke Mark Nowak Simon Ortiz Jesmyn Ward and Colson Whitehead

US Poetry in the Age of Empire, 1979-2012 P. Gwiazda,2014-11-26 Examining poetry by Robert Pinsky Adrienne Rich and Amiri Baraka among others this book shows that leading US poets

since 1979 have performed the role of public intellectual through their poetic rhetoric Gwiazda's argument aims to revitalize the role of poetry and its social value within an era of global politics Recomposing Ecopoetics Lynn Keller, 2018-01-16

In the first book devoted exclusively to the ecopoetics of the twenty first century Lynn Keller examines poetry of what she terms the self-conscious Anthropocene a period in which there is widespread awareness of the scale and severity of human effects on the planet Recomposing Ecopoetics analyzes work written since the year 2000 by thirteen North American poets including Evelyn Reilly Juliana Spahr Ed Roberson and Jena Osman all of whom push the bounds of literary convention as they seek forms and language adequate to complex environmental problems Drawing as often on linguistic experimentalism as on traditional literary resources these poets respond to environments transformed by people and take nature to be a far more inclusive and culturally imbricated category than conventional nature poetry does This interdisciplinary study not only brings cutting edge work in ecocriticism to bear on a diverse archive of contemporary environmental poetry it also offers the environmental humanities new ways to understand the cultural and affective dimensions of the Anthropocene Veer
