Coffee Tea Caribbean Feel Good Friendship:

Caribbean Journeys Karen Fog Olwig, 2007-06-12 An ethnographic study of migration based on the experiences of three dispersed Caribbean families as they maintain networks across their diverse locations The Clear Waters of the Caribbean James R. Craig, 2002-03 The Encyclopedia of Caribbean Religions Patrick Taylor, Frederick I. Case, 2013-04-30 The Encyclopedia of Caribbean Religions is the definitive reference for Caribbean religious phenomena from a Caribbean perspective Generously illustrated this landmark project combines the breadth of a comparative approach to religion with the depth of understanding of Caribbean spirituality as an ever changing and varied historical phenomenon Organized alphabetically entries examine how Caribbean religious experiences have been shaped by and have responded to the processes of colonialism and the challenges of the postcolonial world Systematically organized by theme and area the encyclopedia considers religious traditions such as Vodou Rastafari Sunni Islam Sanatan Dharma Judaism and the Roman Catholic and Seventh day Adventist churches Detailed subentries present topics such as religious rituals beliefs practices specific historical developments geographical differences and gender roles within major traditions Also included are entries that address the religious dimensions of geographical territories that make up the Caribbean Representing the culmination of more than a decade of work by the associates of the Caribbean Religions Project The Encyclopedia of Caribbean Religions will foster a greater understanding of the role of religion in Caribbean life and society in the Caribbean diaspora and in wider national and transnational spaces If God is in Control, Why Do I Have a Headache? Debbie Williams, 2011-09-01 A woman's spiritual struggles can have a profound impact on her health It is through our bodies that we are tempted It is also through our bodies that we serve God Does God care about our physical struggles This six week interactive study examines the stories of biblical women to reveal that God cares deeply about our bodies and our health Each week's lesson will combine a Bible story such as Esther Hannah or the woman with the issue of blood with a health issue such as stress hormones or depression to lead women to greater spiritual and physical health This study emphasizes that what we eat and drink how much sleep we get and how we respond to stress affects our service to God Each week includes studies for five days This study is not intended to diagnose or treat any health condition the reader may have Rather its purpose is to motivate the believer to realize how much God cares about our physical condition and its relation to our spiritual lives All At Sea Heather Wardell, 2012-09-06 Melissa and Owen met on New Years Eve and he proposed on Valentine's Day Now it's March and they're about to set sail on a two week Caribbean cruise and get married on the last day at sea Though their relationship's moving fast Melissa's wanted to be married for years and she knows the smart stable Owen is a great catch so she's sure they'll be fine At least she's sure until she meets his brothers on the cruise and discovers she's dated both of them Austin the fun loving flirt whose kisses still haunt her dreams and Nicholas the sweet horror movie fan whose lack of ambition upset her in ways she still doesn't understand Melissa expected to spend tons of time onboard with her fianc but he instead spends nearly his every waking moment in the casino displaying a previously unseen love of gambling This surprise and the time she spends with Nicholas and with Austin makes her question everything she thought she wanted Her relationship with Owen was just fine before but suddenly just fine doesn't seem good enough to keep a marriage alive for a lifetime Melissa has two weeks to decide stay with Owen or jump ship

Tales from a Dog Catcher Lisa Duffy-Korpics,2009-04-01 The Cold War had recently drawn to a close and Lisa Duffy Korpics's career as a dogcatcher would soon be history too but for very different reasons and indeed with infinitely more pleasant memories In Tales from a Dog Catcher she brings together these experiences in a magical book that is funny touching and heartrending by turns Set in a small Hudson River town north of New York City this book comprises twenty two real life stories about people and their experiences with animals stories that both entertain and charm and feature all creatures great and small from plenty of dogs and cats and peeping Tom raccoons to a duck and a turkey and an imagined mountain lion Animal lovers of all kinds can read how A decades long feud between two longtime enemies who use each other's dogs to hurt each other culminates in a dramatic courtroom battle where they unwittingly end up helping each other. A call on an elderly woman to surrender twenty-three cats provokes a surprising revelation. A language and culture barrier yields a situation where a woman ends up watering her cats like plants. All ends well save for some damp kittens but the laughter continues for miles. The police chief forces the animal control officer (ACO) into a presentation at the local high school for students with behavioral problems. After a few awkward moments the ACO finds herself at ease. Drawn to these engaging teenagers she realizes that sometimes what you are meant to do in life is not always something that you choose. Sometimes it chooses you. In the tradition of James Herriot's All Creatures Great and Small and John Grogan's Marley Me, Lisa Duffy Korpics's Tales from a Dog Catcher is an unforgettable look at the lives of everyday people and animals who, whether by accident or design, come into contact with the sad, comical, and often profound world of an animal control officer.
