Créatrices en 1900 Charlotte Foucher Zarmanian, 2016-02-01 Au passage du XIXe au XXe siècle le puissant clivage entre genres masculin et féminin s'effrite se trouble et met progressivement mal à l'idée que la création serait réservée aux hommes et aux femmes la procréation Dans le domaine de l'art les créatrices sont dès lors autant de figures inattendues importunes et menaçantes susceptibles de remettre en cause l'ordre établi Charlotte Foucher Zarmanian explore ici les stratégies attentistes caméléonesques ou subversives que les femmes artistes déploient avec patience talent audace en France cette époque pour appréhender le monde des arts et s'y faire une juste place En un mot pour créer Loin des poncifs des chemins battus et des causes rebattues cette recherche passe de l'autre côté du miroir du côté de ces femmes qui désirent agir produisent dans le contexte des années 1900 encore largement hostiles leur cause Qu'elles s'emparent des arts décoratifs graphiques et médiumniques de la peinture et de la sculpture qu'elles partagent avec les hommes le feu sacré ou qu'elles choisissent avec tact ou par effraction de le leur voler toutes ces créatrices nous apprennent que l'esthétique symboliste naïve et Art nouveau fut loin d'être alors un apanage masculin Women Artists in Paris, 1850-1900 Laurence Madeline, Pauline Willis, 2017-01-01 Paris was the epicenter of art during the latter half of the nineteenth century luring artists from around the world with its academies museums salons and galleries Despite the city's cosmopolitanism and its cultural stature Parisian society remained strikingly conservative particularly with respect to gender Nonetheless many women painters chose to work and study in Paris at this time overcoming immense obstacles to access the city's resources Women Artists in Paris 1850-1900 showcases the remarkable artistic production of women during this period of great cultural change revealing the breadth and strength of their creative achievements Guest Curator Laurence Madeline Chief Curator at Musée d'art et d'histoire Geneva has selected close to seventy compelling paintings by women of varied nationalities ranging from well known artists such as Berthe Morisot Mary Cassatt and Rosa Bonheur to lesser known figures such as Kitty Kielland Louise Breslau and Anna Ancher Créatrices en 1900 Charlotte Foucher Zarmanian, 2022 The Gender of Photography Nicole Hudgins, 2020-09-02 It would be unthinkable now to omit early female pioneers from any survey of photography's history in the Western world Yet for many years the gendered language of American British and French photographic literature made it appear that women's interactions with early photography did not count as significant contributions Using French and English photo journals cartoons art criticism novels and early career guides aimed at women this volume will show why and how early photographic clubs journals exhibitions and studios insisted on masculine values and authority and how Victorian women engaged with photography despite that dominant trend Focusing on the period before 1890 when women were yet to develop the self-assurance that would lead to broader recognition of the value of their work this study probes the mechanisms by which exclusion took place and explores how women practiced photography anyway both as amateurs and professionals Challenging the marginalization of women's work in the early history of photography this is essential reading for students and scholars of photography history and gender studies Sculpture and the Decorative in Britain and Europe Imogen Hart, Claire Jones, 2020-10-29 By foregrounding the overlaps between sculpture and the decorative this volume of essays offers a model for a more integrated form of art history writing Through distinct case studies from a seventeenth century Danish altarpiece to contemporary British ceramics it brings to centre stage makers objects concepts and spaces that have been marginalized by the enforcement of boundaries within art and design discourse These essays challenge the classed raced and gendered categories that have structured the histories and languages of art and its making Sculpture and the Decorative in Britain and Europe is essential reading for anyone interested in the history and practice of sculpture and the decorative arts and the methodologies of art history Resurrecting Jane de La Vaudère Sharon Larson, 2023-03-16 This engrossing narrative recounts the story of Jane de La Vaudère née Jeanne Scriver a prolific and celebrated writer of France's Belle époque Interweaving biography and literary analysis Sharon Larson examines the ways in which La Vaudère adapted her persona to shifting literary trends and readership demands and how she created and profited from controversy Relatively unknown today La Vaudère published more than forty novels poetry collections and dramatic works as well as hundreds of shorter pieces A controversial figure who was known as a plagiarist La Vaudère attracted the attention of the public and of her peers who caricatured her in literary periodicals and romans clefs Most notably La Vaudère claimed to have written the Leve d'Egypte pantomime whose 1907 production at the Moulin Rouge featured a kiss between Missy and Colette that led to riots and the suspension of future performances Larson scrutinizes the ensemble of these various media constructions privileging La Vaudère's self representation in interviews and advertisements and brings to light her agency in creating an image that captivated public attention and boosted sales of her writings This volume probes the quandaries of scholarship seeking to responsibly recover lost female voices and makes a long overdue contribution to nineteenth century French literary studies Camille Claudel Emerson Bowyer i, Anne-Lise Desmas, 2023-11-07 Abundantly illustrated this catalogue is a fascinating and comprehensive reevaluation of the French modernist sculptor Camille Claudel Camille Claudel 1864 1943 was among the most daring and visionary sculptors of the late nineteenth century Although much attention has been paid to her tumultuous life her affair with her mentor Auguste Rodin the premature end to her career her thirty year institutionalization in an asylum her art remains little known outside of France Memorably praised by critic Octave Mirbeau in 1895 as a revolt of nature a woman of genius Claudel was celebrated for her brilliance during a time when women sculptors were rare Featuring more than two hundred photographs along with contributions from leading experts this publication accompanies the first comprehensive survey of Claudel's oeuvre in nearly forty years With essays exploring the many facets of her life work and reception a biography commentary by American sculptor Kiki Smith and a fascinating appendix of documents written by Claudel and her contemporaries this volume reevaluates the artist's work on its own merits and repositions her legacy within a more complex genealogy of modernism Camille Claudel Emerson

Bowyer, Anne-Lise Desmas, 2023-11-07 Abundantly illustrated this catalogue is a fascinating and comprehensive reevaluation of the French modernist sculptor Camille Claudel. Camille Claudel 1864-1943 was among the most daring and visionary sculptors of the late nineteenth century. Although much attention has been paid to her tumultuous life, her affair with her mentor Auguste Rodin, the premature end to her career, her thirty-year institutionalization in an asylum, her art remains little known outside of France. Memorably praised by critic Octave Mirbeau in 1895 as a revolt of nature, a woman of genius, Claudel was celebrated for her brilliance during a time when women sculptors were rare. Featuring more than two hundred photographs along with contributions from leading experts, this publication accompanies the first comprehensive survey of Claudel's oeuvre in nearly forty years. With essays exploring the many facets of her life, work, and reception, a biography, commentary by American sculptor Kiki Smith, and a fascinating appendix of documents written by Claudel and her contemporaries, this volume reevaluates the artist's work on its own merits and repositions her legacy within a more complex genealogy of modernism. This volume, copublished with The Art Institute of Chicago, accompanies an exhibition on view at The Art Institute of Chicago from October 7, 2023, to February 19, 2024, and at the J. Paul Getty Museum at the Getty Center from April 2 to July 21, 2024.

Parent-elles, association AWARE, 2024-01-11. Le statut des femmes artistes en Occident a connu de nombreuses transformations durant les périodes moderne et contemporaine du XVII^e au XXI^e siècle. Il a tout d'abord pendant un moment et un moment pays des conditions sociales, économiques et culturelles dans lesquelles elles naissaient, se formaient et pouvaient exercer leur art. Et plus que les hommes, elles ont tributaires de leur situation familiale et très fréquemment du rôle qu'elles jouaient au plus près d'elles des hommes. De manière ambivalente, la parenté a longtemps produit chez les femmes des effets de relation et de subordination, mais elle a aussi permis, dans certaines circonstances, un espace de création. Faisant suite au colloque international organisé en septembre 2016 par le Musée Sainte-Croix, l'université de Poitiers, Criham et l'association Archives of Women Artists Research and Exhibitions (AWARE), cet ouvrage met en évidence la pluralité des situations, comme un certain nombre de mécanismes récurrents ou les relations de parenté choisies, subies ou refusées, agissent sur la création individuelle des femmes et émergent parfois comme sujet.

Art Nouveau, Charlotte Ashby, 2021-10-21. Art Nouveau presents a new overview of the international Art Nouveau movement. Art Nouveau represented the search for a new style for a new age, a sense that the conditions of modernity called for fundamentally new means of expression. Art Nouveau emerged in a world transformed by industrialisation, urbanisation, and increasingly rapid means of transnational exchange, bringing about new ways of living, working, and creating. This book is structured around key themes for understanding the contexts behind Art Nouveau, including new materials and technologies, colonialism and imperialism, the rise of the modern woman, the rise of the professional designer, and the role of the patron/collector. It also explores the new ideas that inspired Art Nouveau: nature and the natural sciences, world arts and world religions, psychology, and new visions for the modern self. Ashby explores the movement through 41 case studies of artists and designers, buildings, interiors.
