Under the Spell Benjamin Hedin, 2021-06-15 Under the Spell is the first novel by Benjamin Hedin a dazzling new voice in American fiction Newly widowed Sandra is searching her husband's email for financial information when she discovers a correspondence between him and a woman named Ryan Rather than simply sharing the news of the death Sandra who is shocked and hungry for details instead impersonates her husband as she writes back to Ryan This bold course of action will expose the secrets and solitude within her marriage prompting her to reconsider everything she once held dear Unmoored and seeking connection Sandra also meets Lee a single mother with a drinking problem and begins babysitting her daughter But Sandra can't stop herself from continuing the correspondence with Ryan in the process uncovering more about her husband and Ryan herself A novel that forces us to question how much of a person even those closest to us remains obscure Under the Spell reveals the astonishing transformative power of grief This compelling study in bereavement joins classics such as Don DeLillo's The Body Artist and Joan Didion's The Year of Magical Thinking The Crimson Spell F.
