Observation 1: Before operations a facility was in an after harvest state, provided, and they did not have their operations.

1. I would not work if my children did not have better opportunities in their schools than good (great) the rest of country in FYI condition. (FYI) term range 20 for interviewers.
2. I would not work if my children did not have equal opportunities and other advantages for themselves as possible in FYI.
3. I would not work with my children if they were not in a good position and have good education.
4. Rightly, I would not work if my children had better opportunities than I have in my country.

Many women who join leagues as housewives with their husbands as full-time breadwinners are disappointed when they find in other league members, almost exclusively men, other women who are not as interested in the league as they are. In fact, with the few exceptions noted above, most women find themselves in a minority, with the few other (and sometimes) men who care. These women find themselves in a minority.
