this literature proposes that racial whiteness is perhaps the most artificial color of them all Love against Substitution Eric B. Song, 2022-04-26 Are we unique as individuals or are we replaceable Seventeenth century English literature pursues these questions through depictions of marriage The writings studied in this book elevate a love between two individuals who deem each other to be unique to the point of being irreplaceable and this vocabulary allows writers to put affective pressure on the meaning of marriage as Pauline theology defines it Stubbornly individual love threatens to short circuit marriage's function in directing intimate feelings toward a communal experience of Christ's love The literary project of testing the meaning of marriage proved to be urgent work throughout the seventeenth century Monarchy itself was put on trial in this century and so was the usefulness of marriage in linking Christian belief with the legitimacy of hereditary succession Starting at the end of the sixteenth century with Edmund Spenser and then exploring works by William Shakespeare William Davenant John Milton Lucy Hutchinson and Aphra Behn Eric Song offers a new account of how notions of unique personhood became embedded in a literary way of thinking and feeling about marriage Imagining Gender in Biographical Fiction Julia Novak, Caitríona Ní Dhúill, 2022-12-15 This volume addresses the current boom in biographical fictions across the globe examining the ways in which gendered lives of the past become reimagined as gendered narratives in fiction Building on this research this book is the first to address questions of gender in a sustained and systematic manner that is also sensitive to cultural and historical differences in both raw material and fictional reworking It develops a critical lens through which to approach biofictions as fictions of gender drawing on theories of biofiction and historical fiction life writing studies feminist criticism queer feminist readings postcolonial studies feminist art history and trans studies Attentive to various approaches to fictionalisation that reclaim appropriate or reinvent their raw material the volume assesses the critical revisionist and deconstructive potential of biographical fictions while acknowledging the effects of cliché gender norms and established narratives in many of the texts under investigation The introduction of this book is available open access under a CC BY 4.0 license at link.springer.com Chapter 1 is available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License via link.springer.com Modernism, Sex, and Gender Celia Marshik, Allison Pease, 2018-10-04 Modernism Sex and Gender is an up to date and in depth review of how theories of gender and sexuality have shaped the way modernism has been read and interpreted from its inception to the present day The volume explores four key aspects of modernist literature and criticism that have contributed to the new modernist studies women's contributions to modernism masculinities sexuality and the intersection of gender and sexuality with politics and law Including brief case studies of such writers as May Sinclair and Radclyffe Hall this book is a valuable guide for those looking to understand the history of critical thought on gender and sexuality in modernist studies today Single Lives Katherine Fama, Jorie Lagerwey, 2022-05-13 Inspired by the current public fascination with single women Single Lives traces the relationship between modern and contemporary representations of single women The original essays collected here analyze a broad range of texts that examine the ways films cookbooks
