

The image is a collage of various red-tiled roofs and half-timbered houses, characteristic of the town of Celle in Germany. The houses are built with dark wooden frames and white plaster. The roofs are steeply pitched and covered in reddish-brown tiles. The text 'CELLE' is written in large, white, serif capital letters across the top. Below it, the word 'entdecken!' is written in a green, cursive script. The entire image has a white dotted border at the top, suggesting it might be a page from a scrapbook or a presentation slide.
