Colonialism In Question Theory Knowledge History:

Colonialism in Question Frederick Cooper, 2005-06-06 Probably the most important historian of Africa currently writing in the English language His intellectual reach and ambition have even taken influence far beyond African studies as such and he has become one of the major voices contributing to debates over empire colonialism and their aftermaths This book is a call to reinvigorate the critical way in which history can be written Cooper takes on many of the standard beliefs passing as postcolonial theory and breathes fresh air onto them Michael Watts Director of the Institute of International Studies Berkeley This is a very much needed book on Africa on intellectual artisanship and on engagement in emancipatory projects Drawing on his enormous erudition in colonial history Cooper brings together an intellectual and a moral political argument against a series of linked developments that privilege taking a stance and in favor of studying processes of struggle through engaged scholarship Jane I Guyer author of Marginal Gains

Colonialism in Question Frederick Cooper, 2005-06-06 In this closely integrated collection of essays on colonialism in world history Frederick Cooper raises crucial questions about concepts relevant to a wide range of issues in the social sciences and humanities including identity globalization and modernity Rather than portray the past two centuries as the inevitable movement from empire to nation state Cooper places nationalism within a much wider range of imperial and diasporic imaginations of rulers and ruled alike well into the twentieth century He addresses both the insights and the blind spots of colonial studies in an effort to get beyond the tendency in the field to focus on a generic colonialism located sometime between 1492 and the 1960s and somewhere in the West Broad ranging cogently argued and with a historical focus that moves from Africa to South Asia to Europe these essays most published here for the first time propose a fuller engagement in the give and take of history not least in the ways in which concepts usually attributed to Western universalism including citizenship and equality were defined and reconfigured by political mobilizations in colonial contexts

Gender and Colonialism Lorena Rizzo, 2012 Deals with colonialism in a Namibian periphery and considers both the German colonial period as well as South African rule in the country The main is to develop an understanding of the dynamics and vectors of change in the Kaoko s African societies gradually being placed under colonial rule With a focus on socio economic processes the thesis explores the continuous reconstitution of gender roles and relations and anchors its argument on an integrated analysis of archival written and visual sources as well as on oral knowledge

African Thoughts on Colonial and Neo-Colonial Worlds Anaïs Angelo, Paulina Aroch-Fugellie, Lena Dallywater, Lutz Diegner, Myra Ann Houser, Janine Kläge, Sara Marzagora, Felix Müller, Arno Sonderegger, Ninja Steinbach-Hüther, Joanna Tegnerowicz, 2015-10-16 This book shows the many facets of African engagements with the world It starts from the premise that current global asymmetries ascribing Africa to a marginalized position are the effects of colonial and imperial pasts still lingering on The decolonization process of the post war structure which privileges the West in both political and economic terms While new dependencies emerged several old bonds were maintained and continue to influence

African affairs quite strikingly It is appropriate then to call these continued unequal relations between Africa and the West frankly neo colonial This designation applies all the more as the post colonial states of Africa inherited a complex legacy of foreign rule colonial frontiers colonial languages colonial infrastructure and authoritarian institutions as well as the social intricacies and imbalances so characteristic of the colonial situation The contributions to this volume look at various aspects of these complex processes from intellectual history perspectives The topics dealt with are manifold Contributions deliberately attack key themes ideas and discourses of an intellectual history of Africa state modernity development dependency art etc and introduce important engaged public intellectuals from Africa and the African diaspora What is Africa and how is she related to the rest of the world How can she overcome her internal problems and her external dependencies These are perennial questions critically tackled by Africans throughout the 20th century Dealing with various cases looked at from a variety of perspectives the contributions to this book offer original insights into the intellectual history of Africa

Indigeneity, Landscape and History Asoka Kumar Sen, 2017-07-28 This book engages with notions of self and landscape as manifest in water forest and land via historical and current perspectives in the context of indigenous communities in India It also brings processes of identity formation among tribes in Africa and Latin America into relief Using interconnected historical moments and representations of being becoming and belonging it situates the content and complexities of Adivasi self fashioning in contemporary times and discusses constructions of selfhood diaspora homeland environment and ecology political structures state marginality development alienation and rights Drawing on a range of historical sources from recorded oral traditions and village histories to contemporary Adivasi self narratives the volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of modern Indian history sociology and social anthropology tribal and indigenous studies and politics

The Oxford Handbook of Modern African History John Parker, Richard Reid, 2013-10-10 The Oxford Handbook of Modern African History represents an invaluable tool for historians and others in the field of African studies This collection of essays produced by some of the finest scholars currently working in the field provides the latest insights into and interpretations of the history of Africa a continent with a rich and complex past An understanding of this past is essential to gain perspective on Africa s current challenges and this accessible and comprehensive volume will allow readers to explore various aspects political economic social and cultural of the continent s history over the last two hundred years Since African history first emerged as a serious academic endeavour in the 1950s and 1960s it has undergone numerous shifts in terms of emphasis and approach changes brought about by political and economic exigencies and by ideological debates This multi faceted Handbook is essential reading for anyone with an interest in those debates and in Africa and its peoples While the focus is determinedly historical anthropology geography literary criticism political science and sociology are all employed in this ground breaking study of Africa s past

Echoes of Empire Kalypso Nicolaïdis, Berny Sebe, Gabrielle Maas, 2014-12-23 How does our colonial past echo through today s global politics How have

former empire builders sought vindication or atonement and formerly colonized states reversal or retribution This groundbreaking book presents a panoramic view of attitudes to empires past and present seen not only through the hard politics of international power structures but also through the nuances of memory historiography and national and minority cultural identities Bringing together leading historians political scientists and international relations scholars from across the globe Echoes of Empire emphasizes Europe's colonial legacy whilst also highlighting the importance of non European power centres Ottoman Russian Chinese Japanese in shaping world politics then and now Echoes of Empire bridges the divide between disciplines to trace the global routes travelled by objects ideas and people and forms a radically different notion of the term empire itself This will be an essential companion to courses on international relations and imperial history as well as a fascinating read for anyone interested in Western hegemony North South relations global power shifts and the longue durée

Curating empire Sarah Longair, John McAleer, 2017-02-01 Curating empire explores the diverse roles played by museums and their curators in moulding and representing the British imperial experience This collection demonstrates how individuals their curatorial practices and intellectual and political agendas influenced the development of a variety of museums across the globe Taken together these contributions suggest that museums are not just sites for accessing history but need to be considered as historical sites of significance in themselves Individual essays examine the work of curators in museums in Britain and the colonies the historical display and interpretation of empire in Britain and the establishment of museum networks in the British imperial context Curating empire sheds new light on the relationship between museums as repositories for objects and cultural institutions for conveying knowledge and the politics of culture and the formation of identities throughout the British Empire

The Ends of European Colonial Empires Miguel Bandeira Jerónimo, António Costa Pinto, 2016-02-16 This volume provides a multidimensional assessment of the diverse ends of the European colonial empires addressing different geographies taking into account diverse chronologies of decolonization and evaluating the specificities of each imperial configuration under appreciation Portuguese Belgian French British Dutch

Citizens and Subjects of the Italian Colonies Simona Berhe, Olindo De Napoli, 2021-12-30 This is the first book on Italian colonialism that specifically deals with the question of citizenship subjecthood Such a topic is crucial for understanding both Italian imperial rule and the complex dynamics of the different colonial societies where several actors like notables political leaders minorities etc were involved The chapters gathered in the book constitute an unprecedented account of a heterogeneous geographical area The cases of Eritrea Libya Dodecanese Ethiopia and Albania confirm that citizenship and subjecthood in the colonial context were ductile political tools which were structured according to the orientations of the Metropole and the challenges that came from the colonial societies often swinging between submission cooptation to the colonial power and resistance On one hand the book offers an account of the different policies of citizenship implemented in the Italian colonies in particular the construction of graduated forms of citizenship the repression and expulsion of dissidents the systems of endearment of local people and cooptation of the elites and the racialization of legal status On the other it deals with the various answers coming from the local populations in terms of resistance negotiation and construction of social identity
