People who Shaped the Church Todd Temple, Kim Twitchell, 2000 People Who Shaped the Church examines in detail the lives of Christians who profoundly shaped the church of the twentieth century Accounts of faith and faithfulness in adversity demonstrate the sovereignty of God From Brother Andrew to Mother Theresa from Billy Sunday to Bill Hybels readers will be inspired by these lives and their impact on the church America's Millennium ,1999 Ethiopia in Transit Pietro Toggia, Abebe Zegeye, 2013-10-18 The writings in this edition explore historical and contemporary issues in Ethiopia as the country underwent change and celebrated its new millennium However despite the recognizance of socio economic and political changes Ethiopia still faces enduring problems and challenges to its stability and continuity The political past haunts the country while it is facing the future with optimism and hope The contributors in this edition examine historical and contemporaneous issues with different lenses they investigate the multiplicity and complexity of the contradictions that define traditional and modern Ethiopia The contributions highlight the significance of the instability dislocation conflict and transformation inherent in any society None of these writings however celebrate the forces that create the conflict they are cautious not to glorify the present and romanticize the past On the contrary they seek to contextualize the challenges which the country faces with a view to open a dialogue not exclusively among Ethiopians but with scholars and social activists in the rest of Africa as well as the international community The contributions cover and examine such important topics as historiography political power and legitimacy ideology and radical views knowledge transmission and modernity emigration and the Ethiopian Diaspora ethnic and linguistic identity patriarchy and feminist discourses in a traditional society public policies and economic development traditional and modern art and culture and neo liberalism and globalization This book was published as a special issue of African Identities

Calling Time Martyn Percy, 2016-10-06 This collection of essays examines responses to the Millennium and whether or not the year 2000 could be claimed as a specifically Christian time It also considers how other religions reacted to the moment and what millennial celebrations reveal about religion in a secular age
