Celibacy A. W. Richard Sipe, 1996 Courage at Three AM A.W. Richard Sipe, 2017-08-17 Who among us is ready to face death with eyes and heart completely open Who among us is ready to account for all that we have said and done for all our battles lost and won Who among would have the courage to pause at the very fulcrum of life and death and carefully consider whether it is time to lay down one's shield and fall upon one's sword or pray for Galahad's strength of ten and fight again In these poems of hope reflection and spirituality Richard Sipe endures a dark night of the soul and lingers there daring darkness to overwhelm him and spare him yet another battle while trying to believe in one more dawn What fool can stand wrestle the demons from the deep and hope to live survive un mutilated he complains But the answer is Sipe himself as he recalls the dream childhood a dance with the devil and a path to the divine through sensuality and the ceaseless tests of maturity Summoning the courage to stand at his own graveside he reviews his scars his imperfections and his faults with uncommon candor concluding Truth alone will honor what I've been or done MICHAEL REZENDES Pulitzer Prize Winning Investigative Writer The Boston Globe A W Richard Sipe mentor and champion for victims of clergy sexual abuse records here as he did in his prior volume I Confess his wrestling with personal demons and angels ones that occur behind the veil of the man we all see Courage at Three AM says simply I am human a man I have lived life's paradoxes its arrows of broken integrity and its abuses of soul and meaning which over time demand a hearing by haunting the 3AMs of our waking dreams Like Judas we all face the challenge of transformation resolution and reintegration of our paradoxical parts The courage needed to dance with the 3AM muses is the same required for the realization and acceptance that we need someone to tell us one more time that we are loved and were born to be loved not abused forgotten or caste aside Courage at Three AM teaches us that our scars of inner conflict are not to be feared covered up lied about or air brushed away Rather our collective and individual scars need to be embraced because they are our own essential life marks that identify who we are collectively and individually STEPHEN de WEGER Queensland University of Technology Brisbane Australia Strangers to the City Michael Casey, 2013-09-01 Michael Casey a monk and scholar who has been publishing his wise teachings on the Rule of St Benedict for decades turns to the particular Benedictine values that he considers most urgent for Christians to incorporate into their lives today Eloquent and incisive Casey invites readers to accept that gospel living seen in the light of the Rule involves accepting the challenge of being different from the secular culture around us He encourages readers to set clear goals and objectives to be honest about the practical ways in which priorities may have to change to meet these goals and to have the courage to implement these changes both daily and for the future Casey presents thoughtful reflections on the beliefs and values of asceticism silence leisure reading chastity and poverty putting these traditional Benedictine values into the context of modern life and the spiritual aspirations of people today Strangers to the City is a book for all who are interested in learning more about the dynamics of spiritual growth from the monastic experience The Unchanging

Heart of the Priesthood Thomas Acklin, 2006 In The Unchanging Heart of the Priesthood Father Thomas Acklin presents an apologetic for that which is immutable that which cannot change since it is found in the unchanging heart of Christ Father Acklin refutes modern misconceptions and false understandings of the priesthood while uncovering the beauty strength and hope that is found in God's plan This book will encourage the heart of every priest and help the laity to understand and appreciate the reality and mystery of the priesthood in the Church In The Unchanging Heart of the Priesthood Father Thomas Acklin presents an apologetic for the immutability of the priesthood that which cannot change since it is found in the unchanging heart of Christ Father Acklin refutes modern misconceptions while uncovering the beauty strength and hope that is found in God's plan bringing the reader to an appreciation of the reality and mystery of the priesthood in the Church

Impressively Free Higgins, Michael W., Burns, Kevin, 2019 Explores the genesis and evolution of Nouwen's multi-layered understanding of priestly ministry Veiled Desires Maureen Sabine, 2013-08-22 Ingrid Bergman's engaging screen performance as Sister Mary Benedict in The Bells of St Mary's made the film nun a star and her character a shining standard of comparison She represented the religious life as the happy and rewarding choice of a modern woman who had a complete understanding of both erotic and spiritual desire How did this vibrant and mature nun figure come to be viewed as girlish and naive Why have she and her cinematic sisters in postwar popular film so often been stereotyped or selectively analyzed so seldom been seen as women and religious In Veiled Desires a unique full length in depth look at nuns in film Maureen Sabine explores these questions in a groundbreaking interdisciplinary study covering more than sixty years of cinema She looks at an impressive breadth of films in which the nun features as an ardent lead character including The Bells of St Mary's 1945 Black Narcissus 1947 Heaven Knows Mr Allison 1957 Sea Wife 1957 The Nun's Story 1959 The Sound of Music 1965 Change of Habit 1969 In This House of Brede 1975 Agnes of God 1985 Dead Man Walking 1995 and Doubt 2008 Veiled Desires considers how the beautiful and charismatic stars who play chaste nuns from Ingrid Bergman and Audrey Hepburn to Susan Sarandon and Meryl Streep call attention to desires that the veil concealed and the habit was thought to stifle In a theologically and psychoanalytically informed argument Sabine responds to the critics who have pigeonholed the film nun as the obedient daughter and religious handmaiden of a patriarchal church and the respectful audience who revered her as an icon of spiritual perfection Sabine provides a framework for a more complex and holistic picture of nuns onscreen by showing how the films dramatize these women's Christian call to serve sacrifice and dedicate themselves to God and their erotic desire for intimacy agency achievement and fulfillment A Theological Anthropology of Self-Realization Jennifer Slater O.P., 2012-07-31 The book addresses the intriguing problem of human self realization precisely because of the diverse uses of the term which ranges from abstract philosophical theological theories to practical psychological spiritual applications Jennifer Slater draws the concept from Karl Rahner the twentieth German theologian who uses the term self realization in his theology on freedom and symbolism relating it to the basic free choice which the human person makes to be for or against God Divine Jennifer Slater explores this fundamental free choice which is at the same time a basic choice about oneself She writes from the understanding that the human person is radically free to become the choices she or he makes and freedom is the capacity for definitive self realization In the book she shows that in the exercising of freedom humans precisely as historical beings are also transcendent beings Jennifer grapples with the perception that since human self realization involves the power to make decisions which in reality actualizes a persons own reality how then does this self realization come about and where does the Divine fit into the process If self realization is related to the human self and to the Divine Self she then questions what constitutes the self and self realization This struggle practically employs the woman in general and in particular the woman consecrated to a vowed life The pervasive question throughout is What constitutes the self realization of a human woman being The Art of Winning Souls Michael Casey,2012-05-01 In his chapter on the procedure for the reception of new brothers Saint Benedict makes provision for entrusting them to the care of a senior who is skilled in winning souls who will diligently pay attention to them in everything 58 6 In The Art of Winning Souls Pastoral Care of Novices Michael Casey OCSO reflects on what this means today based on his own experience and observation of the fruitful ministry of others Here Casey focuses on the pastoral care given in the name of a monastic community to those who enter it from initial contact up to the point where their vocation has recognizably stabilized His reflections are not intended to be prescriptive They are rather descriptive of what he considers to be best practice as he has encountered this in his experience of many different expressions of the monastic and Benedictine charism This book promises to serve as an indispensable resource for vocation directors novice directors and junior directors for years to come Coenobium Michael Casey,2021-11-08 After sixty years of living in a Cistercian community Michael Casey combines his down to earth observations about the joys and challenges of living in community with an appreciation of the deeper meanings of cenobitic life taking into account the changes in both theory and practice that have occurred in his lifetime He invites his readers especially monks and nuns to reflect on their own experiences of community as a means of seeing a path forward into the future Many of the key components of monastic community have kept the same names for more than a millennium In an age of paradigm shift Michael Casey invites readers to examine these essential practices of community life and to ask how they might be envisioned in a way that speaks to our contemporaries Sin against the Innocents Thomas G. Plante Ph.D.,2004-03-30 Experts from a variety of fields join forces to show what fuels a most horrific violation of trust sexual abuse by priests and how the Church and church structure play a role in this abuse This riveting work includes chapters by a former Director of the premiere U S facility treating clergy who are sexual offenders by a Jesuit psychologist who authored the largest study of clergy sexual abusers ever completed and from a Vatican Correspondent explaining the issues as seen by the Vatican The text also includes an opening chapter by Michael Rezendes a Boston Globe investigative reporter and member of the Spotlight Team that won the Pulitzer Prize for breaking the story of sexual abuse by clergy A statement by the Executive Director of SNAP the national support group for victims of clergy sexual abuse is also included This is the first book that gathers experts from a variety of fields to offer thoughtful objective perspectives regarding what we know about sexual abuse by clergy and what we can do to solve the problem Attention is given not only to psychological aspects of both the perpetrators and victims but also to canon law clergy misconduct review boards the sexual celibate agenda of the Church the challenges for treatment facilities and barriers to resolution that exist within the Roman Catholic Church
