

A nighttime photograph of the CityCenter towers in Las Vegas. The two towers are illuminated with blue and white lights, and their facades are covered in a grid of small, glowing lights. In the foreground, a large, colorful fountain is spraying water upwards, illuminated with vibrant rainbow colors. The sky is dark, and several large fireworks are exploding in the upper left corner, creating bright white and blue bursts. The overall scene is a vibrant and celebratory representation of the new Las Vegas skyline.

Creating Citycenter World Class Architecture And The New Las Vegas:

Creating Citycenter William R Smith, Scott J Tilden, 2013-11-19 How the Strip got urban streets and parks hotels luxury retail stores condominiums and convention centers in one mega development MGM Resorts International's CityCenter is the largest privately financed building project in the United States to date its development brought together star architects and major interior design firms and landscape architects The design and concurrent construction of seven separate buildings and accompanying infrastructure are documented here from start to finish in stunning photographs The Production Sites of Architecture Sophia Psarra, 2019-01-14 The Production Sites of Architecture examines the intimate link between material sites and meaning It explores questions such as how do spatial configurations produce meaning What are alternative modes of knowledge production How do these change our understanding of architectural knowledge Featuring essays from an international range of scholars the book accepts that everything about the production of architecture has social significance It focuses on two areas firstly relationships of spatial configuration form order and classification secondly the interaction of architecture and these notions with other areas of knowledge such as literature inscriptions interpretations and theories of classification ordering and invention Moving beyond perspectives which divide architecture into either an aesthetic or practical art the authors show how buildings are informed by intersections between site and content space and idea thought and materiality architecture and imagination Presenting illustrated case studies of works by architects and artists including Amale Andraos Dan Wood OMA Koen Deprez and John Soane The Production Sites of Architecture makes a major contribution to our understanding of architectural theory Critical Luxury Studies John Armitage, 2016-04-18

Assembling the foremost scholars in this innovative distinctive and expanding subject internationally well known critical theorists John Armitage and Joanne Roberts present a ground breaking aesthetic design led and media related examination of the relations between historical and crucially contemporary ideas of luxury Critical Luxury Studies offers a technoculturally inspired survey of the mediated arts and design as well as a means of comprehending the socio economic order with novel philosophical tools and critical methods of interrogation that are re defining the concept of luxury in the 21st century

Time Out Las Vegas Editors of Time Out, 2012-07-13 Time Out Las Vegas is the only crib sheet travelers need to the world's most outlandish city Whether going for a short or extended visit this guide is an invaluable companion through the neon maze that awaits in Las Vegas With the lowdown on all the hotels and casinos money saving tips extensive restaurant reviews hints on the hottest nightlife and a full guide to gambling it leaves nothing to chance This seventh edition proves that there is more to Sin City than just sequins and slots the dramatic expansion in hotel accommodations fine dining and shopping is attracting tourists from every economic strata not just those with gambling as their sole agenda The guide contains a detailed explanation of what games are available in the casinos as well as tips on how to play them There is also a chapter on suggested side trips to Hoover Dam as well as other sights in Nevada and Arizona Lodging, 2006 The Strip Stefan

Al,2017-03-03 The transformations of the Strip from the fake Wild West to neon signs twenty stories high to starchitecture and how they mirror America itself The Las Vegas Strip has impersonated the Wild West with saloon doors and wagon wheels it has decked itself out in midcentury modern sleekness It has illuminated itself with twenty story high neon signs then junked them After that came Disney like theme parks featuring castles and pirates followed by replicas of Venetian canals New York skyscrapers and the Eiffel Tower It might be noted that forty two million people visited Las Vegas in 2015 ten million more than visited the real Paris More recently the Strip decided to get classy with casinos designed by famous architects and zillion dollar collections of art Las Vegas became the implosion capital of the world as developers driven by competition got rid of the old to make way for the new offering a non metaphorical definition of creative destruction In The Strip Stefan Al examines the many transformations of the Las Vegas Strip arguing that they mirror transformations in America itself The Strip is not as popularly supposed a display of architectural freaks but representative of architectural trends and a record of social cultural and economic change Al tells two parallel stories He describes the feverish competition of Las Vegas developers to build the snazziest most tourist grabbing casinos and resorts with a cast of characters including the mobster Bugsy Siegel the eccentric billionaire Howard Hughes and the would be political kingmaker Sheldon Adelson And he views the Strip in a larger social context showing that it has not only reflected trends but also magnified them and sometimes even initiated them Generously illustrated with stunning color images throughout The Strip traces the many metamorphoses of a city that offers a vivid projection of the American dream

The Story of Post-Modernism Charles Jencks,2012-05-25 In The Story of Post Modernism Charles Jencks the authority on Post Modern architecture and culture provides the defining account of Post Modern architecture from its earliest roots in the early 60s to the present day By breaking the narrative into seven distinct chapters which are both chronological and overlapping Jencks charts the ebb and flow of the movement the peaks and troughs of different ideas and themes The book is highly visual As well as providing a chronological account of the movement each chapter also has a special feature on the major works of a given period The first up to date narrative of Post Modern Architecture other major books on the subject were written 20 years ago An accessible narrative that will appeal to students who are new to the subject as well as those who can remember its heyday in the 70s and 80s The New York Times Magazine ,2005

The Postcolonial Condition of Architecture in Asia Francis Chia-Hui Lin,2022-02-16 This book provides a bidirectional investigation of Asia s spatiotemporality by asking how Asia is located and how localities are Asianized Historical and theoretical inquiries into architecture and urbanism in order to trace a notional common divisor are integrated with readings of this Asian imagery Such a common divisor is conditioned to Asia s phenomenal postcolonial subjectivation and showcases Asia s unique character This book contends that the postcolonial condition of architecture in Asia suggests a potential and critical bridge to better understanding of the region Theoretically display ness is a strategic and allegoric carrier that is in the focus of this book in order to emphasize the quality of display in a broader sense of time and space Asia's architectural and urban spectacle thus is meaningfully magnified and intensified with this notion of display ness to ground the cohesive abstraction among ideological discourse production innovative theorizations and empirical phenomena in contemporary scholarship
