

The background of the book cover is a classical painting. It depicts a woman with long, wavy, reddish-brown hair, looking upwards and to the right. She has a small, dark, leafy branch with red berries tucked into her hair near her temple. To her right, the face of another woman with blonde hair and a green garment is visible, looking down at the first woman. The scene is set in a forest with tall, dark trees and a blue sky. The title is overlaid on the top half of the image.

Varner,2007-10-14 Today the majority of humankind worships a single God Although this God is said to be all loving and wanting peace for his worshippers there is very little peace among the three religions based on common theology Judaism Christianity and Islam all foster hatred for one another causing millions of deaths and untold suffering for hundreds of years This book explores the mythic historical and archaeological record to illustrate the history of these conflicts The Gods of Man also looks at how monotheism eventually dominated and destroyed the ancient and peaceful goddess traditions that had existed for thousands of years before Is the God of today simply used to enforce government edicts justify war and to control society Gary R Varner has written several articles and books on ancient religions folklore and mythology He is a member of
