notes on this adaptation

One of many fairy tales popularized by Disney, elements of the "Cinderella story" are popular and well-known throughout history and different cultures. The earliest recorded version is the story of Yeh-Shen from China, which features a magical fish instead of a Fairy Godmother. The story of Angkat from Cambodia is similar, but has a more bittersweet ending. The famed Brothers Grimm also recorded a version of this story, but Speakaboos draws mostly from the Charles Perrault version, which features strong themes of motherhood.

Cinderella Multicultural Lesson Plans:

Multicultural Teaching Pamela L. Tiedt, Iris M. Tiedt, 2002 Multicultural Teaching Sixth Edition provides activities and information designed to enable the teacher to explore the many kinds of diversity in the classroom. The authors guide readers to examine their own diversity first in order to better understand how diversity affects everyone. This text presents model lesson plans, fully developed thematic units, and a variety of instructional strategies as well as a wealth of resources that support multicultural teaching. It examines difficult issues and problems within multicultural education to encourage reflections and discussion. It explains the basic content of multicultural education and also describes methods for carrying out the best education for all students. It deals with such important topics as language diversity, appropriate terminology, prejudice and stereotyped thinking, and emphasizes the development of esteem, empathy, and equity in the classroom.

Human Rights in Children's Literature Jonathan Todres, Sarah Higinbotham, 2016 How can children grow to realize their inherent human rights and respect the rights of others? This book explores this question through children's literature from Peter Rabbit to Horton Hears a Who! to Harry Potter. The authors investigate children's rights under international law, identity, and family rights, the right to be heard, the right to be free from discrimination, and other civil, political, economic, social, and cultural rights, and consider the way in which those rights are embedded in children's literature. This book traverses children's rights, law, literary theory, and human rights education to argue that in order for children to fully realize their human rights, they first have to imagine and understand them.

Comprehensive Multicultural Education Christine I. Bennett, 2003 This book provides readers with the historical background, basic terminology, and social science concepts of multicultural education. Comprehensive Multicultural Education provides a curriculum model with six goals and numerous lesson plans illustrating how each goal can be implemented in the classroom. The book includes conceptual frameworks from the social sciences and historical backgrounds. Both theory and practice in the book present interdisciplinary content through primary source material and vignettes of actual teachers and students, and encourage interactions between readers' cultural and individual differences. For anyone interested in multicultural education, teaching in a pluralistic society, and/or foundations of American culture and society.

Instruction and Assessment of ESL Learners Faye Brownlie, Catherine Feniak, Vicki McCarthy, 2004 This one-of-a-kind resource offers solutions for teachers who provide exemplary instruction to students from varied cultural and linguistic backgrounds. Using real classroom experiences and current research, the authors focus on the needs of ESL learners in the regular classroom. The activities and assessment tools can be used by classroom teachers and ESL teachers working alone or together. In this book, you will find ways to incorporate English and the home languages of the ESL students into the same lesson, suggestions for informal individual and group assessments for reading, writing, and oral language, ideas for welcoming new ESL students, examples of criteria that can be used for the assessment of ESL students, open-ended lessons, and units for all learners, with accompanying reproducible masters.
