Cinema And Social Discourse In Cameroon Bayreuth African Studies:

Cinema and Social Discourse in Cameroon Alexie Tcheuyap, 2005 Cinema and Social Discourse in Cameroon analyzes a cinema that has been inaugurating some major thematic and aesthetic innovations for the last twenty years. The essays in this volume use film semiotics, postcolonial enquiries as well as cultural theories to stimulate alternative innovative and radical analyses that interrogate and disrupt official discourses and preoccupations about national culture. They also reveal the diverse and creative voices in Cameroon film, deepening our understanding of the language and social discourse of a vibrant national cinema.

Ethics and Aesthetics in Contemporary African Cinema James S. Williams, 2019-03-21 Since the beginnings of African cinema, the realm of beauty on screen has been treated with suspicion by directors and critics alike. James S. Williams explores an exciting new generation of African directors including Abderrahmane Sissako, Mahamat Saleh Haroun, Fanta Regina Nacro, Alain Gomis, Newton Iduaka, Jean Pierre Bekolo, and Mati Diop, who have begun to reassess and embrace the concept of cinematic beauty by not reducing it to ideological critique or the old ideals of pan-Africanism. Locating the aesthetic within a range of critical fields: the rupturing of narrative, spectacle and violence by montage; the archives of the everyday in the afropolis; the plurivocal mysteries of sound and language; male intimacy and desire; the borderzones of migration and transcultural drift, this study reveals the possibility for new, non-conceptual kinds of beauty in African cinema: abstract, material, migrant, erotic, convulsive, queer. Through close readings of key works such as Life on Earth (1998), The Night of Truth (2004), Bamako (2006), Daratt (2006), A Screaming Man (2010), Tey Today (2012), The Pirogue (2012), Mille soleils (2013), and Timbuktu (2014), Williams argues that contemporary African filmmakers are proposing propitious ethical forms of relationality and intersubjectivity. These stimulate new modes of cultural resistance and transformation that serve to redefine the transnational and the cosmopolitan as well as the very notion of the political in postcolonial art cinema.

Cultural Studies of Transnationalism Handel Kashope Wright, Meghan Morris, 2013-09-13 This book asks what transnationalism might mean for Cultural Studies as an intellectual project shaped in vastly differing circumstances across the world. With contributions from scholars with experience of cultural life and the work of education in various regions, countries and locales from francophone Africa, Eastern Europe and the Middle East to Hawaii, Jamaica, South Korea and Japan, Cultural Studies of Transnationalism ranges across literary, film, dance, theatrical and translation studies to explore the socially material and institutional factors that not only shape transnational developments in culture broadly understood but also frame the academic and professional spaces in which we reflect on these. This book was originally published as a special issue of the journal Cultural Studies.

Arts Management, Cultural Policy, & the African Diaspora Antonio C. Cuyler, 2022-06-15 This book centers people of African descent as cultural leaders to challenge the myth that they do not know how or care about managing and preserving their culture. Arts Management, Cultural Policy, the African Diaspora also presents comparative case studies of the challenges, differences, similarities and successes in approaches to cultural leadership across multiple cultural contexts throughout the diaspora This volume disrupts the enduring and systemic global marginalization oppression and subjugation that threatens and undermines people of African descent s cultural contributions to humanity The most important distinguishing feature of the volume is its geographical use of the African diaspora to explore the subjects of arts management and cultural policy which to date no volume has done before Furthermore the volume s comparative examination of ten critical historical practical and theoretical questions makes it a significant contribution to the literatures in Arts Management Cultural Policy Cultural Africana African American and Ethnic studies

Africa's Lost Classics Lizelle Bisschoff, 2017-07-05 Until recently the story of African film was marked by a series of truncated histories many outstanding films from earlier decades were virtually inaccessible and thus often excluded from critical accounts However various conservation projects since the turn of the century have now begun to make many of these films available to critics and audiences in a way that was unimaginable just a decade ago In this accessible and lively collection of essays Lizelle Bisschoff and David Murphy draw together the best scholarship on the diverse and fragmented strands of African film history Their volume recovers over 30 lost African classic films from 1920 2010 in order to provide a more complex genealogy and begin to trace new histories of African filmmaking from 1920s Egyptian melodramas through lost gems from apartheid South Africa to neglected works by great Francophone directors the full diversity of African cinema will be revealed
