Global Citizenship Education Resources for Primary Schools

Wednesday 23 November 2022, 7–8p.m.

Register for one or both remaining webinars by emailing info@globalvillageschools.ie

This is the second in a three-part webinar series exploring Global Citizenship Education opportunities for primary schools.

Global Citizenship Education is an active and creative educational process to increase awareness and understanding of the world in which we live. Learners are supported, in age-appropriate ways, to make connections between their own lives and international social justice issues, to collaborate, cooperate and be empowered to make a positive difference in the world.

This webinar will explore:

- Teaching and learning resources for Global Citizenship Education in primary schools.
- Examples of thematic planning using a global theme (e.g. sustainability, gender inequality).
- Subject specific examples with links to relevant resources.

Webinar 3

The Sustainable Development Goals and the Primary School Curriculum

– the third webinar will take place on

Wednesday 30 November 2022, 7–8p.m.

Facilitated by Global Village

Global Village is the new strategic partnership for Global Citizenship Education in Primary Schools, between Irish Aid at the Department of Foreign Affairs, and a consortium of Trócaire, Dublin City University (DCU), the Irish National Teachers' Organisation (INTO) and the Irish Primary Principals' Network (IPPN).

M. Willems, 2013 During the last two decades interest in children s development of good citizenship has grown among political and educational theorists in the Western world leading to much debate about the concept of citizenship education In this study a specific approach to citizenship education is proposed namely a virtue ethical approach which explicitly links citizenship education to moral education From the virtue ethical point of view citizenship education is aimed at developing the civic virtues attitudes that enable citizens to contribute to society such as justice tolerance and solidarity Since this study focuses on teachers in Catholic education these three virtues have been interpreted from a community centred active perspective which is supposed to fit the normative framework of Catholic schools The central question of this study is to what extent teachers in Dutch Catholic primary education possess the qualities that are needed to stimulate students civic virtues and in what way these qualities can be improved Two kinds of moral pedagogical teacher behaviour are central the teachers modelling behaviour and the way teachers arrange their moral classroom discussions These two kinds of behaviour will be studied as well as their relationship with the teachers moral beliefs Furthermore a teacher course that is designed to stimulate these two kinds of moral pedagogical behaviour is evaluated Frank Willems 1979 Boxmeer lived in Vierlingsbeek a small town in the south eastern part of the Netherlands the first twenty two years of his life After finishing Teacher Training College in 2002 he moved to Nijmegen to study educational sciences at the Radboud University The next year he also started studying philosophy of education at the same university In 2007 he finished both studies Since that time he had been working as a junior researcher at the IKO Institute for Catholic Education which is connected to the Radboud University He was involved in research and he developed tools for schools for the implementation of the insights of his study Currently Frank is working as a product coordinator at Examenadviesburo a small company in Nieuwegein near Utrecht He is involved in the development of exams for all kinds of professions brokers insurers accountants and others

Education and Democracy in China Zhou Ying, 2023-12-11 In this book Ying Zhou argues that educational reform filled a critical role in bridging the precarious gap between democratic ideals and political realities in late Qing and Republican China where institutional change in education and the cultivation of a qualified citizenry were two sides of the same coin in the development of democratic education Through a multi level analysis of the re arrangements of national education and teachings of citizenship Zhou unravels the complex political and educational nexus in China between 1901 1937 where the hope of education was to bring both political modernity and social progress

Influences of the IEA Civic and Citizenship Education Studies Barbara Malak-Minkiewicz, Judith Torney-Purta, 2021-05-26 This open access book identifies the multiple ways that IEA s studies of civic and citizenship education have contributed to national and international educational discourse research policymaking and practice The IEA International Civic and Citizenship Education Study ICCS first conducted in 2009 was followed by a second cycle in 2016 The project was linked to the earlier IEA Civic Education Study CIVED 1999 2000 IEA s ICCS remains the only large scale international study dedicated to formal and informal civic and citizenship education in school It continues to make substantial contributions to understanding the nature of the acquired civic knowledge attitudes and participatory skills It also discusses in depth how a wide range of countries prepare their young people for citizenship in changing political social and economic circumstances The next cycle of ICCS is planned for 2022 In this book more than 20 national representatives and international scholars from Europe Latin America Asia and North America assess how the processes and findings of the 2009 and 2016 cycles of ICCS and CIVED 1999 2000 have been used to improve nations understanding of their students civic knowledge beliefs attitudes current civic related behaviors and intentions for future participation in a comparative context There are also chapters summarizing the secondary analysis of those studies results indicating their usefulness for educational improvement and reflecting on policy issues The analyses and reflections in this book provide timely insight into international educational discourse policy practice and research in an area of education that is becoming increasingly important for many societies

Informal Learning of Active Citizenship at School Jaap Scheerens, 2009-02-21 Active citizenship is an objective of schooling in an increasingly complex context in which social cohesion of the multicultural society is a cause for growing societal concern International co operation between European countries and a growing heterogeneity of the school populations of most European countries have led to an increased interest in education for citizenship The core question dealt with pertains to the role that schools can play in developing citizenship through formal and informal learning Day to day school life is seen as a rich environment in which aspects of functioning in a democratic society and dynamic interplay with rules leadership and peers with different backgrounds are experienced and form a source of learning In this view the school context functions as a micro cosmos to exercise school citizenship as a bridge to societal citizenship and state citizenship The book brings together material from Cyprus Denmark England Germany Italy Romania and The Netherlands Debates in British Politics Today Lynton J. Robins,Bill Jones,2000 The contents focus directly on the dynamics of political argument in order to reveal how rival politicians and political scientists practice their persuasive art Each contributor explores a disputed viewpoint showing how differences of attitude and ideology structure the contemporary debate Students should learn how an argument is constructed and develop the skills necessary for separating rhetoric from political reality Further guidance is provided by summary boxes and suggested additional reading Citizenship Education in China Kerry J. Kennedy,Gregory Fairbrother,Zhenzhou Zhao,2013-10-15 There is a flourishing literature on citizenship education in China that is mostly unknown in the West Liberal political theorists often assume that only in democracy should citizens be prepared for their future responsibilities yet citizenship education in China has undergone a number of transformations as the political system has sought to cope with market reforms globalization and pressures both externally and within the country for broader political reforms Over the past decade Chinese scholars have been struggling for official recognition of citizenship education as a key component of the school curriculum in these changing contexts This book analyzes the citizenship education issues under discussion within China and aims to provide a voice for its scholars at a time when China s international role is becoming increasingly important How to Be a Peaceful School Anna Lubelska,2018-04-19 Promote peace at school with this practical guide which provides a simple four step system for improving wellbeing and nurturing the potential of pupils and staff It is full of easy to implement anti stress and anti bullying strategies plus ideas for getting children interested in peace on a global level
