Colonial Saints Discovering Americas 1500 1800 Ebook:

Colonial Saints Allan Greer, Jodi Bilinkoff, 2003 Experiencing Time in the Early Modern Hispanic World Ariadna García-Bryce, 2023-09-20 This book considers the new ways time was experienced in the sixteenth and seventeenth century Hispanic world in the framework of global Catholicism It underscores the crucial role that the imitation of Christ plays in modeling how representative writers physically and mentally interiorize temporal impermanence as the Messiah's suffering body becomes a paradigmatic as well as malleable marker of the avatars of earthly history Particular attention is paid to the ways in which authors adapt Christ centered conceptions of existence to accommodate both a volatile post eschatological world and the increased dominance of mechanical clock time As novel means of communing with Christ emerge so too do new modes of sensing and understanding time unleashing unprecedented cultural and literary reinvention This is demonstrated through close analyses of writings by such influential figures as Saint Ignatius of Loyola Saint Teresa of Avila Carlos de Sigüenza y Góngora and Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz Profiling Saints Elisa Frei, Eleonora Rai, Christopher B. Brown, Günter Frank, Barbara Mahlmann-Bauer, Tarald Rasmussen, Violet Soen, Zsombor Tóth, Günther Wassilowsky, Siegrid Westphal, 2023-05-15 Profiling Saints follows and expands the papers presented at the homonym online international conference December 2021 which focused on cultural theological artistic and social aspects of models of sanctity and their importance in the modern world up to the post revolutionary period This volume aims thus to shed light on the cultural value of canonizations and models of sanctity as models of Christian perfection including the role of iconography and artworks in the broader context of modern global Catholicism The topics presented by the authors include veneration to and canonization and representations of saint theologians missionaries martyrs mystics and reformers men and women Profiling Saints looks at modern sanctity and saints from multidisciplinary perspectives ranging from liturgy theology and Church history up to history of ideas cultural history history of emotions and art history and contributes to shed light on such a complex phenomenon of Christian history in its modern developments Book Review Index Cumulation Dana Ferguson, 2005-09 Book Review Index provides quick access to reviews of books periodicals books on tape and electronic media representing a wide range of popular academic and professional interests The up to date coverage wide scope and inclusion of citations for both newly published and older materials make Book Review Index an exceptionally useful reference tool More than 600 publications are indexed including journals and national general interest publications and newspapers Book Review Index is available in a three issue subscription covering the current year or as an annual cumulation covering the past year Arts & Humanities Citation Index, 1997 Mohawk Saint Allan Greer, 2004-11-25 On October 21 2012 Pope Benedict XVI canonized Saint Kateri Tekakwitha as the first Native North American saint Mohawk Saint is a work of history that situates her remarkable life in its seventeenth century setting a time of wars epidemics and cultural transformations for the Indian peoples of the northeast The daughter of an Algonquin mother and an Iroquois father Catherine Saint Kateri Tekakwitha 1656

1680 has become known over the centuries as a Catholic convert so holy that almost immediately upon her death she became the object of a cult. Today she is revered as a patron saint by Native Americans and the patroness of ecology and the environment by Catholics more generally. The first Native North American proposed for sainthood, Tekakwitha, was born at a time of cataclysmic change as Native Americans of the northeast experienced the effects of European contact and colonization. A convert to Catholicism in the 1670s, she embarked on a physically and mentally grueling program of self-denial, aiming to capture the spiritual power of the newcomers from across the sea. Her story intersects with that of Claude Chauchetiere, a French Jesuit of mystical tendencies who came to America hoping to rescue savages from sin and paganism. But it was Claude himself who needed help to face down his own despair. He became convinced that Tekakwitha was a genuine saint, and that conviction gave meaning to his life. Though she lived until just 24, Tekakwitha's severe penances and vivid visions were so pronounced that Chauchetiere wrote an elegiac hagiography shortly after her death. With this richly crafted study, Allan Greer has written a dual biography of Saint Kateri Tekakwitha and Chauchetiere, unpacking their cultures in Native America and in France. He examines the missionary and conversion activities of the Jesuits in Canada and explains the Indian religious practices that interweave with converts' Catholic practices. He also relates how Tekakwitha's legend spread through the hagiographies and to areas of the United States, Canada, Europe, and Mexico in the centuries since her death. The book also explores issues of body and soul, illness and healing, sexuality and celibacy as revealed in the lives of a man and a woman from profoundly different worlds who met centuries ago in the remote Mohawk village of Kahnawake.

Exploration and Conquest Betsy Maestro, Giulio Maestro, 1994. Relates the story of the first European explorers and settlers to come to America and details their effect on the people they encountered there.
