Shaw, 2022-06-23 This book addresses responses to the predicament of medical and social infertility It draws on international research to examine the dimensions of reproductive citizenship in relation to decision making about a range of issues from fertility preservation and the desirability of family creation as a normative expectation of social participation to how families manage and negotiate engagement with providers of reproductive materials and services around information disclosure and contact and how they consider their social obligations and responsibilities in relation to the use of assisted reproductive technology ART The power of vulnerability Anu Koivunen, Katariina Kyrölä, Ingrid Ryberg, 2018-12-28 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license This book is available as an open access ebook under a CC BY NC ND licence This book investigates the new language of vulnerability that has emerged in feminist queer and antiracist debates on media taking a particular interest in the historical legacies and contemporary forms and effects of this language Contributors such as Jack Halberstam and Sara Ahmed examine how vulnerability has become a battleground how affect and vulnerability have turned into a politicised currency both for addressing and obscuring asymmetries of power and how media activism and state policies address so called vulnerable groups Taking on such heated topics as trigger warnings and diversity policies the book will be of interest to scholars and students in media and cultural studies affect theory gender studies queer theory and critical race studies Critical Perspectives on Language and Kinship in Multilingual Families Lyn Wright, 2020-09-17 Applying critical kinship perspectives to the study of multilingual families this book foregrounds family formation processes gender and sexuality in examinations of language use Focusing on historically marginalized families such as single parent adoptive and LGBTQ the analyses draw on data from private and public spheres including interviews and recorded interactions in homes as well as memoirs documentaries news media and even comedy Lyn Wright addresses questions such as why single parents might be better at raising bilingual children how multilingualism plays a role in constructing shared histories in adoptive families and what translingual resources allow LGBTQ families to negotiate gender roles and family relationships In addition she examines the construction of monolingual nuclear family norms in public discourse that potentially constrain families everyday multilingual identities Integrating related fields of family discourse family language socialization and family language policy unifies ways of understanding the intersections of kinship and language The analyses in this book provide insight into multilingual family experiences children s language development and societal level language maintenance and shift Transnationalising Reproduction Roisin Ryan

Flood, Jenny Gunnarsson Payne, 2018-06-28 Third party conception is a growing phenomenon and provokes a burgeoning range of ethical legal and social questions What are the rights of donors recipients and donor conceived children How are these reproductive technologies regulated How is kinship understood within these new family forms Written by specialists from three different continents Transnationalising Reproduction examines a broad range of issues concerning kinship and identity citizenship and regulation and global markets of reproductive labour including gamete donation and gestational surrogacy Indeed this book seeks to highlight how reproductive technologies not only makes possible new forms of kinship and family formations but also how these give rise to new ethical political and legal dilemmas about parenthood as well as new modes of discrimination and a re distribution of medical risks It also thoroughly investigates the ways in which a commodification of reproductive tissue and labour affects the practices representations and gendered self understandings of gamete donors fertility patients and intended parents in different parts of the world With a broad geographical scope Transnationalising Reproduction offers new empirical and theoretical perspectives on third party conception and demonstrates the need for more transnational approaches to third party reproduction This volume will appeal to postgraduate students and postdoctoral researchers interested in fields such as Gender Studies Health Care Sciences Reproductive Technology and Medical Sociology Indigenous Struggles in the United States Barbara Alice

Mann, 2025-06-10 This book sheds light on the intricate history of Indigenous America s struggle for identity and sovereignty Examining the utilization of a divide and conquer strategy through federal recognition in the United States the book offers a profound analysis of the tactics employed by the U S government to subdue Indigenous peoples From the early days of American colonization the U S sought to eliminate Indigenous competition for land leading to a complex interplay of alliances and divisions within Indigenous communities This book investigates the government s systematic efforts to redefine racial identity ultimately erasing Indigenous people from official records The book calls for a reclamation of Indigenous America s narrative emphasizing the importance of self representation and unity This compelling work challenges readers to confront the enduring consequences of historical injustices and rethink the concept of identity in a rapidly changing world

Creative Families Jana Mikats, Susanne Kink-Hampersberger, Libora Oates-Indruchová, 2021-06-01 This edited collection brings together two strands of current discussions in gender research through the concept of creativity First it addresses creativity in the context of the family by exploring changing and newly emergent family forms and ways of creating and maintaining intimate relationships Creativity here is understood not as just newness or originality but as that which in the words of Eisler and Montouri 2007 supports nurtures and actualizes life by increasing the number of choices open to individuals and communities One aim of this book therefore is to investigate the social collaborative and creative interactions in contemporary family and kin formations in Europe Second the volume examines how new media and technologies are entering and shaping everyday family lives Technological transformations and adaptations have not only enabled the creation of new forms of families and ways of family living but also challenged the established constellations of gender and family arrangements The present volume addresses these issues from multiple perspectives and in different contexts and explores the involvement of different actors By problematizing the creativity of becoming and doing family and kinship the authors acknowledge the increasing fluidity of gender identities the evolving diversity of relationships and the permeation of technology into daily life
