Critical Suicidology Transforming Research Prevention:

Critical Suicidology Jennifer White, Ian Marsh, Michael J. Kral, Jonathan Morris, 2015-12-02 Globally suicides account for a significant number of premature deaths every year Traditional approaches to suicide research and prevention are not working for everyone but why is this And what can be done about it In Critical Suicidology a team of international scholars practitioners and people directly affected by suicide argue that the field of suicidology has become too focused on the biomedical paradigm a model that pathologizes distress and obscures the social political and historical contexts that contribute to human suffering The authors introduce the perspectives of those who have direct personal knowledge of suicide and suicidal behaviour and propose alternative approaches to suicide prevention that are creative socially just and culturally responsive In the right hands this book could save lives

Undoing Suicidism Alexandre Baril, 2023-05-26 This book proposes a radical queercrip reconceptualization of suicide and assisted suicide offering the first comprehensive antisuicidist and intersectional theorization of its kind Alexandre Baril argues that current logics of prevention create a system of structural suicidism that oppresses stigmatizes and pathologizes marginalized individuals and communities experiencing suicidality

Reframing Suicide Katrina Jaworski, Ian Marsh, 2024-09-06 This book focuses on understanding and researching suicide and suicide prevention from historical political cultural social and philosophical perspectives all of which are located in particular contexts of research and practice Critical suicide studies as an intellectual movement has been in the making for over 40 years Yet it has emerged only in recent times thanks to the global efforts of scholars practitioners and activists working across a range of disciplines and fields of practice Critical suicide studies seeks to reframe how suicide has been researched by disrupting traditional ways of understanding suicide and suicide prevention In so doing this movement is critical of the universalising assumptions and applications of ideas about suicide which too often are centre on Western notions of psychopathology and individualised accounts of agency and suicidal subjectivity The collected works in this book offer interventions into the way suicide and suicide prevention have been understood in different contexts be it in relation to the history of knowledge production and its approaches practices of suicide prevention and more recent examples of how suicide is represented both publicly and personally This book will be of immense value to scholars students and researchers interested in the topic of suicide in relation to epistemic injustice history critiques of scientific frameworks moral discourses ethics and creative arts such as poetry It was originally published as a special issue of Social Epistemology

The Somatechnics of Life and Death Elizabeth Stephens, Karin Sellberg, 2021-03-16 What is life and how do we define its boundaries Is life immeasurable or are there levels of liveliness How should we relate to entities that are not technically alive at all As the world becomes increasingly technologized questions about what counts as life and living have become a key field of inquiry in contemporary philosophical and arts discourse As Mel Chen acknowledges in Animacies 2012 the continued rethinking of life and death's proper boundaries has increasingly been recognized as a priority in twenty first century North American European and Australasian critical theory Indeed the contributors of this volume go as far as to argue that the question of life has become the central problematic of recent feminist biopolitics alongside discussions of scientific ethics and technological organic power relationships This volume explores points of intersection and divergence between critical conceptions of time and technology drawing on a range of perspectives and approaches to examine our mediated and material embodied entanglements with key questions about life and death It is a significant new contribution to the study of corporeality in gender studies and feminism and will be of interest to academics researchers and advanced students of philosophy gender studies literary theory and politics It was originally published as a special issue of Australian Feminist Studies

Discourses of Men's Suicide Notes Dariusz Galasinski, 2017-10-19 Deaths by suicide are high every 40 seconds someone in the world chooses to end their life Despite acknowledgement that suicide notes are social texts there has been no book which analyzes suicide notes as discursive texts and no attempt at a qualitative discourse analysis of them Discourses of Men's Suicide Notes redresses this gap in the literature Focussing on men and masculinity and anchored in qualitative discourse analysis Dariusz Galasinski responds to the need for a more thorough understanding of suicidal behaviour Culturally men have been posited to be masters of the universe and yet some choose to end their lives This book takes a qualitative approach to data gathered from the Polish Corpus of Suicide Notes a unique repository of over 600 suicide notes to explore discourse from and about men at the most traumatic juncture of their lives Discussing how men construct suicide notes and the ways in which they position their relationships and identities within them Discourses of Men's Suicide Notes seeks to understand what these notes mean and what significance and power they are invested with

The International Handbook of Suicide Prevention Rory C. O'Connor, Jane Pirkis, 2016-10-31 The International Handbook of Suicide Prevention 2nd Edition presents a series of readings that consider the individual and societal factors that lead to suicide it addresses ways these factors may be mitigated and presents the most up to date evidence for effective suicide prevention approaches An updated reference that shows why effective suicide prevention can only be achieved by understanding the many reasons why people choose to end their lives Gathers together contributions from more than 100 of the world's leading authorities on suicidal behavior many of them new to this edition Considers suicide from epidemiological psychological clinical sociological and neurobiological perspectives providing a holistic understanding of the subject Describes the most up to date evidence based research and practice from across the globe and explores its implications across countries cultures and the lifespan The Idea of Suicide Michael J. Kral,2019-05-21 This book is about a new theory of suicide as cultural mimesis or as an idea that is internalized from culture Written as part of a new critical focus in suicidology this volume moves away from the dominant strictly scientific understanding of suicide as the result of a mental disorder and towards positioning suicide as an anthropologically salient community driven phenomenon Written by a leading researcher in the field this volume presents a conception of suicide as culturally scripted and it demonstrates how suicide becomes a cultural idiom of distress that for some can become a normative option The ^AReturn of the Sun Michael J. Kral,2019-07-01 The Return of the Sun shows how Indigenous communities can develop on their own successful suicide prevention strategies Kral details how government colonialism disrupted Inuit lives especially family lives Suicide and the Self Dariusz Galasiński,Justyna Ziółkowska,2025-07-28 This book centres on self accounts of suicidal behavior using a Critical Discourse Analysis CDA approach to offer a qualitative perspective within current suicidology and suicide prevention research Suicide and the Self A Discourse Analysis Approach to Self Narratives of Suicide is the first qualitative study to explore suicide through the eyes of the person experiencing it The volume is grounded in foundational CDA concepts which view social reality as constructed through language and draw on data from real people s writings interviews visual representations and farewell letters to understand the discursive resources and linguistic patterns in these narratives from varied temporal perspectives By focusing on how individuals construct their own stories Galasi ski and Zi kowska show how a discourse analytic approach can enrich suicidological research and inform suicide prevention efforts This book is essential reading for scholars in suicidology medical humanities allied health and discourse analysis
