predators and live safely alongside them The Crocodile Hunter Steve Irwin, Terri Irwin, 2002-11-05 For Steve and Terri Irwin confronting aggressive sixteen foot gators hissing deadly snakes charging rhinos venomous spiders huge lizards and wild reptiles in their own habitats was a part of daily life Steve's love for animals began at an early age when his parents created an animal refuge instilling in him a respect for Australia's native wildlife and some of the most dangerous creatures on Earth Writing with his wife and soul mate Terri Irwin Steve provides intimate insights into their private life away from the cameras Learn how they first met how they successfully translated a shared love of animals into a worldwide message of conservation and how they built one of the largest private animal refuges in Australia New Voices, New Visions

Catriona Elder, Keith Moore, 2012-03-15 New Voices New Visions brings together a collection of papers that engage with the ideas of nation identity and place The title New Voices New Visions harks back to earlier scholarship that endeavoured to explore these issues It therefore makes links between old and new stories of Australian identity tracing the continuities shifts and changes in how Australia is imagined The collection is deliberately interdisciplinary gathering work by historians literary and film scholars communication and cultural theorists political scientists and sociologists This mixed perspectives enables the reader to trace ideas concepts and theories across a range of disciplines and understand the distinctive ways in which different disciplines engage with ideas of nation space and Australian identity The book is written in an engaging and accessible manner making it an excellent text for undergraduate and postgraduate students in the fields of Australian Studies It will be especially useful for the growing number of students living outside Australia who engage with Australian literature and culture The book provides a range of topics that introduces students to key issues and concepts It also situates these ideas in historical context New Voices New Visions engages with key contemporary issues in everyday Australian life environment and climate change immigration consumerism travel and cities It explores these various topics by considering case studies both contemporary and historical For example the issue of attitudes to Asia are analysed through art the topic of national symbols through the case of the crocodile approaches to immigration via a popular reality television programme The contributors to this book comprise some of the foremost Australian scholars as well as emerging scholars This combination ensures a depth of knowledge but also a vibrancy The editors are experienced scholars whose knowledge of the field is broad and they have brought a coherence to the material ensuring a strong narrative for the reader In a Sunburned Country

Bill Bryson, 2012-05-15 Deliciously funny fact filled and adventurous In a Sunburned Country takes us on a grand tour of Australia It's a place where interesting things happen all the time from a Prime Minister lost yes lost while swimming at sea to Japanese cult members who may entirely unnoticed have set off an atomic bomb on their 500 000 acre property in the great western desert Australia is the only island that is also a continent and the only continent that is also a country Its aboriginal people a remote and mysterious race with a tragic history have made it their home for millennia And despite the fact that it is the most desiccated infertile and climatically aggressive of all inhabited continents it teems with life In fact

Australia has more things that can kill you in extremely nasty ways than anywhere else sharks crocodiles the planet's ten most deadly poisonous snakes fluffy yet toxic caterpillars sea shells that actually attack you and the unbelievable box jellyfish don't ask The dangerous riptides of the sea and the sun baked wastes of the outback both lie in wait for the unwary Australia is an immense and fortunate land and it has found in Bill Bryson its perfect guide In a Sunburned Country offers the best of all possible introductions to what may well be the best of all possible nations Even with those jellyfish Auerbach's Wilderness Medicine E-Book Paul S.
