Chance, Logic And Intuition: An Introduction To The Counter-intuitive Logic Of Chance Steven Tijms, 2021-02-18 Chance rules our daily lives in many different ways From the outcomes of the lottery to the outcomes of medical tests from the basketball court to the court of law The ways of chance are capricious Bizarre things happen all the time Nevertheless chance has a logic of its own It obeys the rules of probability But if you open a standard book on probability you may very well feel far removed from everyday life Abstract formulas and mathematical symbols stare back at you with almost every turn of the page This book introduces you to the logic of chance without the use of mathematical formulas or symbols In Part One you will meet the fascinating pioneers of the mathematics of probability including Galileo Galilei and Blaise Pascal Their stories will introduce you step by step to the basics of probability In Part Two various examples in all areas of daily life will show you how chance defies our expectations time and again But armed with the basic rules of probability and a good dose of inventiveness you will be able to unravel the counter intuitive logic of chance

Unknowing Fanaticism Ross Lerner, 2019-04-02 We may think we know what defines religious fanaticism violent action undertaken with dogmatic certainty But the term fanatic from the European Reformation to today has never been a stable one Then and now it has been reductively defined to justify state violence and to delegitimize alternative sources of authority Unknowing Fanaticism rejects the simplified binary of fanatical religion and rational politics turning to Renaissance literature to demonstrate that fanaticism was integral to how both modern politics and poetics developed from the German Peasants Revolt to the English Civil War The book traces two entangled approaches to fanaticism in this long Reformation moment the targeting of it as an extreme political threat and the engagement with it as a deep epistemological and poetic problem In the first thinkers of modernity from Martin Luther to Thomas Hobbes and John Locke positioned themselves against fanaticism to pathologize rebellion and abet theological and political control In the second which arose alongside and often in response to the first the poets of fanaticism investigated the link between fanatical self annihilation the process by which one could become a vessel for divine violence and the practices of writing poetry Edmund Spenser John Donne and John Milton recognized in the fanatic s claim to be a passive instrument of God their own incapacity to know and depict the origins of fanaticism Yet this crisis of unknowing was a productive one It led these writers to experiment with poetic techniques that would allow them to address fanaticism s tendency to unsettle the boundaries between human and divine agency and between individual and collective bodies These poets demand a new critical method which this book attempts to model a historically minded and politicized formalism that can attend to the complexity of the poetic encounter with fanaticism The Evening of Life Joseph E. Davis, Paul Scherz, 2020-09-30 Although philosophy religion and civic cultures used to help people prepare for aging and dying well this is no longer the case Today aging is frequently seen as a problem to be solved and death as a harsh reality to be masked In part our cultural confusion is rooted in an inadequate conception of the human person which is based on a notion of absolute individual autonomy that cannot but fail in the face of the dependency that comes with aging and decline at the end of life To help correct the ethical impoverishment at the root of our contemporary social confusion The Evening of Life provides an interdisciplinary examination of the challenges of aging and dying well It calls for a re envisioning of cultural concepts practices and virtues that embraces decline dependency and finitude rather than stigmatizes them Bringing together the work of sociologists anthropologists philosophers theologians and medical practitioners this collection of essays develops an interrelated set of conceptual tools to discuss the current challenges posed to aging and dying well such as flourishing temporality narrative and friendship Above all it proposes a positive understanding of thriving in old age that is rooted in our shared vulnerability as human beings It also suggests how some of these tools and concepts can be deployed to create a medical system that better responds to our contemporary needs The Evening of Life will interest bioethicists medical practitioners clinicians and others involved in the care of the aging and dying Contributors Joseph E Davis Sharon R Kaufman Paul Scherz Wilfred M McClay Kevin Aho Charles Guignon Bryan S Turner Janelle S Taylor Sarah L Szanton Janiece Taylor and Justin Mutter Thinking about Things and Other Frivolities Edward Farley, 2014-02-13 This memoir records the story of the author's personal journey toward a life of university teaching and probes that story in reflective essays on a variety of subjects One group of essays has to do with the characteristic activities and institutional setting of a professor Other essays explore ways of experiencing the world as mysterious beautiful and tragic One piece offers a rather somber account of current ways in which the American experiment in democracy is in peril Scraps of what looks like an intellectual autobiography are scattered over the pages of the narrative recalling the puzzles that gave rise to a number of writing projects In a way this is a book of paradoxes and antitheses Janus like it faces toward the past and the future It offers generalized convictions and specific observations treats both the ordinary themes of life experience and tangled esoterica and presents both the experiences of an individual and an analysis of educational institutions As a whole the book invites readers to join the author in thinking about things Handbook of Divination and Prognostication in China Michael Lackner, Zhao Lu, 2022-05-20 This is the first comprehensive book that presents the manifold aspects of divination and prognostication in traditional and modern China from the early period of oracle bones to present day fortune tellers It introduces what is out there in the field of Chinese divination and prognostication and how we can further explore it especially through different disciplines Eminent specialists outline the classifications of divination recently excavated texts

Friendship and Virtue Ethics in the Book of Job Patricia Vesely, 2019-03-28 Examines friendship as a moral category in the Book of Job through an Aristotelian virtue ethics perspective On Theology: Herman Bavinck's Academic Orations, 2020-09-07 On Theology Herman Bavinck's Academic Orations presents four previously untranslated works by Herman Bavinck 1854 1921 These works offer important insights into Bavinck's conceptualisation of the discipline of theology its place in the modern university and the relation in which theology stands to religion In the introductory essay Bruce R Pass draws attention to the way these speeches shed light on the development of Bavinck's thought across his tenure at the Kampen Theological School and the Free University of Amsterdam as well as the complex relationship in which Bavinck's thought stands to that of Friedrich Schleiermacher
