Colour and Humanism Don Pavey, 2003 The power of colour has been used by great masters of the past and present to elicit many different feelings in people to shock them to over awe them and stimulate action to help people think and make judgements to delight them with subtle pleasures to calm them or render them spellbound with subliminal visions Historians will find here a new approach to history and artists and designers of today who use colour to influence are invited to discover here a pragmatic framework for opening unexpected and powerful concepts in aesthetics that can give birth to new ways of using colour archetypes in a myriad of new movements in the future of the visual arts Colour and Humanism Don Pavey, 2009 On Humanism Richard J. Norman, 2004 An impassioned plea that we turn to ourselves not religion if we want to answer Socrates age old question what is the best kind of life to live Norman deals with big questions such the environment Darwinism and creation science euthanasia and abortion and then argues the it is ultimately through the human capacity for art literature and the imagination that humanism is a powerful alternative to religious belief Toni Morrison's Art. A Humanistic Exploration of The Bluest Eye and Beloved Sumedha Bhandari, 2017-02-08 Toni Morrison the eighth American to receive the Nobel Prize in Literature is perhaps the most formally sophisticated novelist in the history of African American literature Astutely she describes aspects of human lives and unlike many other writers reveals the hope and beauty that underlines the worlds ugliness Her artistic excellence lies in achieving a perfect balance between black literature and writing about the universal truth Although firmly grounded in the cultural heritage and social concerns of black Americans her work transcends narrowly prescribed conceptions of ethnic literature exhibiting universal mythical patterns and overtones Her novels thus mourn on universal concerns The endeavor in this study is to scrutinize the unspoken lexis of Toni Morrison s works and to unveil the layers of humanistic concerns that provide denotations to her words Earlier studies on this writer have concentrated on adjudging her as a writer addressing problems of black people However this book tries to extend this notion to encompass the problems of whole human community by assimilating blacks in the general drama of life Before dyeing the strings of Morrison s novels with the colour of humanist concerns this book delineates the term Humanism from which these humanistic concerns arise Sicily Herald and the Blazon of Colours (Renaissance Colour Symbolism I) Roy Osborne, 2016-04-27 Sicily Herald and the Blazon of Colours brings together the original texts with original English translations of two closely related primary sources on Renaissance colour symbolism Le Blason de toutes armes et scutz The blazon of all arms and shields was completed about 1420 by Jean Courtois c 1375 1436 the Sicily Herald and printed in Paris in 1495 The second Le Blason des couleurs en armes livr es et devises The blazon of colours in arms liveries and devices by Gilles Corrozet 1510 68 was published in Paris in 1527 by Pierre Le Brodeur They were first two books on colour to be printed in Europe and are now available in English for the first time in five centuries Roy Osborne is an artist educator and historian and author of books on colour He was awarded the Turner Medal of
