Critical Issues in Organizations Stewart Clegg, David Dunkerley, 1977-01-01 Critical Issues in Organizations (RLE: Organizations) Stewart Clegg, David Dunkerley, 2013-05-02 This collection highlights a number of directions in which organization theory could develop It also argues the need for an historical analysis of the sociology of organizations Other issues discussed are the ideological stance of contemporary organization theory and the limiting framework that tends to ignore the wider social context in which organizations exist The Theory of Power and Organization (RLE: Organizations) Stewart Clegg, 2013-08-21 In this book the author develops a theory of power and organization derived from a critical consideration of a literature extending across sociology political science philosophy and organization theory The book raises and answers some of the issues which are important in the construction of a theoretical apparatus for the analysis of power and at the same time it proposes an alternative concept of organization centred around the themes of power and control

The Geography of Multinationals (RLE International Business) Michael Taylor, Nigel Thrift, 2013-04-02 Through a series of international case studies the nature and the geographical implications of the development of multinational corporations is examined The volume concentrates on the latter Post War period of corporate restructuring and readjustment in response to world wide recession in the mid 1980s The volume is divided into two parts In the first each of the chapters considers a particular aspect of the problem of how multinational corporations have developed In the second part the chapters consider different aspects of the economic and social impacts of these corporations The common theme that links all the papers is their emphasis on careful historical analysis of different forms of spatial organisation and their transformation into other different forms Organization, Class and Control (RLE: Organizations) Stewart Clegg, David

Dunkerley, 2013-05-02 In this volume the authors develop a systematic and chronologically based critique of the major concepts figures and schools in organization Themes discussed include the development of scientific management and the responses of Gramsci and Lenin to it the meaning of Mayo and the Human Relations School the development of typological systems and contingency models of the organization key concepts of goals environment and technology Doing Research in Organizations (RLE: Organizations) Alan Bryman, 2013-05-02 This textbook provides first hand inside accounts of the process of doing research in organizations It is intended both for students of research methods in sociology and social psychology and for students of organization studies organizational behaviour and management The contributors tackle such problems as gaining access to organizations getting on in organizations quantitative and qualitative styles of investigation the use of historical materials the effects of resources on the context of research the part played by political factors in organizational research the relevance of grounded theory and conducting research within a cross cultural framework

Handbook of Organizations (RLE: Organizations) James March, 2013-06-26 This book charts the state of organizational research and theory during the 1960s A compendium of results references concepts ideas and theories this

Handbook will be of interest to both academics in organizational theory and managers facing operating problems of organizations

Power, Rule and Domination (RLE: Organizations) Stewart Clegg, 2013-05-02 This volume presents a critical analysis of sociological theorizing and power which enables the reader to grasp fully the nature of power rule and domination in organizational life By making use of the discussions he recorded at a construction site the author brings the reader into contact with the everyday social world in which he locates his analysis of power and authority at both a structural and phenomenological level This analysis is complemented by the author's review of the literature on theorizing by writers such as Wittgenstein Blum McHugh Phillips and Cicourel his examination of the community power debate between authors such as Bachrach and Baratz and Dahl and a survey of the literature on power in its organizational aspects by Weber Simmel and the more contemporary work of Hickson

Leadership and Organization (RLE: Organizations) Robert Tannenbaum, Irving Weschler, Fred Massarik, 2013-05-02 This book represents a selected collection of the writings from 1950 to 1960 of members of the Human Relations Research Group HRRG from UCLA The writings are followed by independent comments and appraisal from different viewpoints prepared by distinguished experts in management theory group psychotherapy and psychology and sociology

The International Yearbook of Organization Studies 1981 (RLE: Organizations) David Dunkerley, Graeme Salaman, 2013-05-02 The diverse topics in this volume bring together developments in the field of organization studies Although the approaches are by no means undifferentiated the articles share a commitment to a revitalized organizational analysis an historically based analysis and one which attempts to understand the structure and impact of organizations in terms of the location of these organizations within structure of class and power
