Critical Thinking For Addiction Professionals:

Critical Thinking for Addiction Professionals Michael J. Taleff, 2006-01-18 Learn to Think Critically and Make Better Decisions Addiction professionals make decisions everyday that impact peoples lives Sometimes these decisions are solid and sometimes they are the result of flawed thinking which often results from myths and generalizations that are perpetuated in the field Thinking flaws are common not just in counselors but in supervisors administrators and presenters and can lead to potentially negative outcomes both for clients and for programs In this easy to read guide the first to bring together critical thinking and addiction work critical thinking expert and addiction professional Dr Michael J Taleff offers readers the tools they need to think critically and make better decisions Readers learn To evaluate their critical thinking abilities The characteristics of a critical thinking professional What drives bad thinking in addiction work How to recognize and avoid thinking fallacies The ethics and consequences of using critical thinking Dr Taleff has provided an insightful analysis of the kinds of thinking errors often made by counselors The text should be required reading in all areas of health and human services The concepts and discussion are as valuable to experienced helpers as they are to novices Gregory Blevins Ph D Professor Governors State University Advanced Ethics for Addiction Professionals Michael J. Taleff, 2009-11-13 The aspects of the book related to the philosophy of science and cognitive science inductive and deductive reasoning biases and heuristics are distilled in reasonable and useful ways I recommend this book to those addiction professionals who want to create their own framework for ethical decision making PsycCRITIQUES Ethical decision making is required in many of the difficult situations faced by addiction professionals In this guide Michael Taleff describes how to integrate critical thinking with ethical decision making This is a guide not on what to do when confronted with difficult ethical dilemmas but on how to think about what to do The author presents common ethical dilemmas that addiction professionals face in their daily work such as boundary issues confidentiality dual relationships and more and asks readers to consider their own responses to these dilemmas The book then shows readers how to apply new models of ethical thinking to practice Key features Presents an ethical self exam to encourage critical thinking about one s own decision making method Introduces a variety of models such as the social contract theory existentialist theory and ethical egoism Discusses how biases emotional reactions and fallacies can weaken ethical decision making Presents an introductory Ethics Judgment Kit a simple practical decision making procedure for students This book demonstrates how critical thinking skills can impact and improve the process of ethical decision making Ethics for Addiction Professionals Jennifer D. Berton, 2013-12-03 Guidance for addiction counselors in understanding and applying ethical standards Filled with proven strategies to help you examine your current practice for ethical snags and refresh your ethical thinking Ethics for Addiction Professionals leads you in examining building and rebuilding aspects of your ethical practice with the goal of helping you become the strongest clinician possible ethically speaking Up to date and comprehensive this practical guide examines real life examples of ethical issues in clinical practice and illustrates potential pitfalls and the actions needed when faced with dilemmas Helping addiction counselors learn how to deal with and apply ethical standards Ethics for Addiction Professionals explores the gray area of common dilemmas and provides guidelines on how to determine the best course of action when the best course is unclear Covers basic principles that affect current ethical concerns and dilemmas Includes illustrative real world case studies Features well defined professional codes of ethics Treats ethics as a set of guidelines designed to protect the client the clinician and the profession as a whole TIP 52: Clinical Supervision and Professional Development of the Substance Abuse Counselor U.S.

Department of Health and Human Services,2019-11-23 This Treatment Improvement Protocol TIP is a companion to TIP 51 Substance Abuse Treatment Addressing the Specific Needs of Women These two volumes look at how gender specific treatment strategies can improve outcomes for men and women respectively The physical psychological social and spiritual effects of substance use and abuse on men can be quite different from the effects on women and those differences have implications for treatment in behavioral health settings Men are also affected by social and cultural forces in different ways than women and physical differences between the genders influence substance use and recovery as well This TIP Addressing the Specific Behavioral Health Needs of Men addresses these distinctions It provides practical information based on available evidence and clinical experience that can help counselors more effectively treatment with substance use disorders
