Critical Transnational Feminist Praxis Amanda Lock Swarr, Richa Nagar, 2012-02-01 Provocative timely and global this volume offers a critical and grounded engagement with transnational feminism through the lens of praxis the juncture of theory and practice In so doing it grapples with questions of power and representation while remaining deeply committed to radical critiques and agendas of transnational and postcolonial feminisms Long time activists and well known scholars speak to a wide range of issues and practices including women s studies curricula NGOs transnational and LGBTQ studies feminist methodologies and film These essays similarly conceptualize ways to more effectively theorize feminist collaborative practices while subverting such rigid established dichotomies as theory practice academic activist individual collaborative and the global North South A number of transnational projects are highlighted the Guyanese Red Thread collective the Ananya Dance Theater the Philippine Women Center of British Columbia the Filipino Canadian Youth Alliance the VIVA Project and the Indian organization Sangtin Comprehensive in scope and rigorous in critical scrutiny these powerful essays set the twenty first century agenda for political engagement through feminist scholarship The mix of styles makes for a lively read that is accessible for its extraordinary candor its combination of theory with firmly grounded empirical examples and an unflinching confrontation of pain and conflict It made me think about entirely new things and about familiar things in new ways and to make connections among them Louise Fortmann University of California Berkeley Amanda Lock Swarr is Assistant Professor of Women Studies at the University of Washington Seattle Richa Nagar is Professor of Gender Women and Sexuality Studies at the University of Minnesota Twin Cities She is the author with Sangtin writers of Playing with Fire Feminist Thought and Activism through Seven Lives in India The Humanities Reloaded Keyan G. Tomaselli, Pier Paolo Frassinelli, 2023-03-21 This volume examines the crisis of humanities narratives in the context of neoliberal capitalism and of the emergence and consolidation of the metrics driven corporate managerial university Do narratives of the crisis of the humanities mobilize specific notions of value and prestige How are these notions classed gendered and racialized How do narratives of the crisis of the humanities relate to current debates and contestations surrounding decolonization Does the crisis of a traditional configuration of the humanities open up opportunities to use their institutional space for work that is both socially and politically relevant and academically rigorous The aim is to provide a counter narrative of the present and future of the humanities In addition to the study of a multiplicity of media texts and other multimodal expressive forms formats and platforms and genres a communicative turn in the humanities entails deepening the study of the value chains in which they are inserted and their conditions of production circulation and reception Communicative and digital capitalism now labelled the Fourth Industrial Revolution is on its way to bringing its own waves of struggles and confrontations to our campuses and beyond to which humanities scholars and activists can make a vital contribution should some of us decide to do so This book will be of interest to researchers and advanced students of art literature media and cultural studies education politics sociology and social and cultural anthropology The chapters in this book were originally published in the journal Critical Arts South North Cultural and Media Studies

Handbook on Economics of Discrimination and Affirmative Action Ashwini Deshpande, 2023-07-17 This Handbook deals with theoretical and empirical evidence on the economics of discrimination and affirmative action across the world assessed over a variety of social identities such as caste race ethnicity gender disability age tribal status It also outlines methodological advances in this area with plenty of additional references for the interested reader It combines theoretical frameworks developed in the West with historical writings about discrimination and social justice from primarily Indian philosophers aspects which are typically not found under one roof It offers the reader a combination of insights into theories across a range of disciplines as well as evidence data both quantitative and qualitative in addition to the latest methodological advances in the estimation of discrimination econometric experimental mixed methods

Resisting Theologies and the Everyday Wren Radford, 2025-06-26 This powerful volume provides dynamic ways of constructing theologies of resistance and liberation by engaging with the everyday practices of marginalised communities In doing so this collection of theological experts reject abstracted concepts of bodes and taxonomies of race gender sexuality and disability Readers will find this a dynamic book with a variety of approaches that provide ways of constructing theologies of resistance and liberation Experiences of marginalisation have provided a powerful reference point for developing theologies of justice and liberation however theological and political frameworks often reduce the complexity of lived experiences into categories and themes Daily practices of resisting and surviving are frequently considered too fleshy domestic or banal to be of theological meaning Therefore Radford and their coterie of academics draw on understandings of the everyday in feminist womanist Latinx and decolonial theologies as well as in cultural theory This allows critical reflection on how theological approaches can shape alternative relations to self society and the sacred In recognising the lived and felt realities of struggling against oppressive colonial and racialised systems contributors engage with academic and activist debates about the possibilities of remaking social relations and creating other ways of knowing and being From Black theology to disabled activists on social media to queer clergy in South Africa this volume holds together differences in contributors approaches modelling the view that there is not just one form of resistance nor a single approach to constructing theology

Beyond Gender Greta Olson, Mirjam Horn-Schott, Daniel Hartley, Regina Leonie Schmidt, 2018-01-17 Scholars and activists often narrate the history of gender and feminism as a progression of waves said to mark high points of innovation in theory and moments of political breakthrough Arguing for the notion of multiple futurities over that of progressive waves Beyond Gender combines theoretical work with practical applications to provide an advanced introduction to contemporary feminist and sexuality research and advocacy This comprehensive monograph documents the diversification of gender related disciplines and struggles arguing for a multidisciplinary approach to issues formerly subsumed under the unified field of gender studies Split into two parts the volume demonstrates how the notion of gender has been criticized by various theories pertaining to masculinity feminism and sexuality and also illustrates how the binary and hierarchical ordering system of gender has been troubled or overcome in practice in queer performance legal critique the classroom and textual analysis Taking a fresh approach to contemporary debates in feminist and sexuality studies Beyond Gender will appeal to undergraduate students interested in fields such as Feminism and Sexuality Studies Gender Studies Feminist Theory and Masculinity Studies Feminist and LGBTI+ Activism across Russia, Scandinavia and Turkey Selin Çağatay, Mia Liinason, Olga Sasunkevich, 2021-12-16 What do struggles for women's and LGBTI rights in Russia Turkey and the Scandinavian countries have in common And what can actors who struggle for rights and justice in these contexts learn from each other Based on a multisited ethnography of feminist and LGBTI activisms across Russia Turkey and the Scandinavian countries this Open Access book explores transnational struggles on various levels from the micro scale of the everyday to large scale spectacular events Drawing on ethnographic insights and encounters from various sites this book conceptualizes resistance as situated in the grey zone between barely perceptible even hidden or covert forms of mundane activist practices and highly visible street protests gathering large crowds Taking the reader beyond the dichotomies of visible invisible and public private this book advances new understandings of resistance solidarity and activism in transnationalizing feminist and queer struggles illustrated by rich ethnographic case studies from Russia Scandinavia and Turkey Getting In Is Not Enough Colette Morrow, Terri Ann Fredrick, 2012-12 This anthology examines women's paid work in terms of both access to the economic system and the broader agenda of achieving feminist social change worldwide Generations of feminists have linked women's empowerment autonomy and oppression to issues involving work Most conflated women's economic and political clout with gender equity arguing that increasing women's access to and leadership in the public workplace is crucial to the success of the feminist project But recent debates about women's continued inability to gain equality in the workplace raise the need for new approaches to teaching about gender and employment Getting In Is Not Enough responds to the challenge Drawn from almost two decades of the Feminist Formations journal the essays in this book critically examine assumptions about access and the ways in which women affect and are affected by work in three major spheres economic social and political Getting In Is Not Enough focuses on how access based feminism a term developed by Colette Morrow and Terri Ann Fredrick has both failed and succeeded in achieving equity and justice for women and looks at how transnational feminism has addressed these concerns using a global fundamentally transformative approach The contributors consider a wide range of issues from an examination of the male female wage gap that starts when girls are teenagers to policewomen in Persian Gulf countries to Latinas politics to Aboriginal health care workers to secretarial work and to feminist activism in Cuban hip hop Do Muslim Women Need Saving? Lila Abu-Lughod, 2013-11-12 Do Muslim Women Need Saving is an indictment of a mindset that has justified all manner of foreign interference including military invasion in the name of rescuing women from Islam It offers a detailed moving portrait of the actual experiences of ordinary Muslim women and of the contingencies with which they live
