Christenson, Amy L. Reschly, 2010-06-10 Family and community involvement are increasingly touted as a means of improving both student and school level achievement This has led to an increase in policies initiatives and goals designed to address family involvement in schools Once recognized and implemented such family school partnerships can lead to the following benefits enhanced communication and coordination between parents and educators continuity in developmental goals and approaches across family and school contexts shared ownership and commitment to educational goals increased understanding of the complexities of children s situations and the pooling of family and school resources to find and implement quality solutions to shared goals Foundations of Primary Teaching Denis Hayes, 2013-06-17 Presenting a detailed introduction to all aspects of teaching within the primary school this new edition has been updated with new material on inclusion SEN legal issues ICT and teaching assistants The Pyramid Approach George Woodrow Jr., 2014-10-08 This book explains why virtually all children can achieve proficiency or higher And it gives educators the tools to help them achieve those levels of learning The notion that schools are waiting for Superman or Wonder Woman to rescue them is at best a fantasy and at worst damaging to schools and school systems that advance this type of flawed thinking This is why in this book the reader will be encouraged to embrace the concept that only through building effective teams collective instructional leadership will schools begin to realize their stated goal educate all students It may take a village to raise children but it takes collective instructional leadership to educate them This book takes great care to ask the questions that policymakers educators parents students and the larger community want answered Can you handle the truth Why is team leadership needed How do campuses improve their team dynamics What methods do high performing nations use to excel What strategies really work in high poverty schools Where do American schools rank on the rigor scale What is trust and how is it developed What are campus learning disabilities How do beliefs about human capacity affect student achievement levels What methods motivate students to work hard What do we really mean when we say All children can learn The Pyramid Approach was designed by Dr George Woodrow Jr for use by educators The Pyramid is research based it aligns theory with professional practice In addition it strives to take what we know and provide a practical framework to effectively apply that same knowledge in ways that promotes student achievement The Pyramid Approach calls attention to the need for a systematic framework that recognizes the interconnectedness among research methods
