Huebert,2014-03-30 Most Christians struggle to keep up a daily quiet time Many of us are dependent on devotional books to shape our time with God because we have no idea how to do it on our own Or maybe we avoid daily devotions because it feels like we re not getting much out of them And then the guilt kicks in because we know we really ought to have a daily quiet time Am I right But imagine an approach to your quiet time that feels like wading into a living stream You can enjoy a proven rhythm created by God himself that welcomes you just as you are and helps you go with the flow instead of fighting the current Go With The Flow will show you how to approach your daily time with God simply naturally and joyfully You ll learn how to embrace a current that will help you thrive in your faith and live your whole life saturated by the good news of Jesus Christ

Religious and Non-Religious Perspectives on Happiness and Wellbeing Sharada Sugirtharajah, 2022-04-25 This book explores the theme of happiness and well being from religious spiritual philosophical psychological humanistic and health perspectives Taking a non binary approach it considers how happiness in particular has been understood and appropriated in religious and non religious strands of thought The chapters offer incisive insight from a variety of perspectives including humanism atheism and major religions such as Christianity Islam Buddhism Hinduism and Judaism Together they demonstrate that although worldviews might vary substantially there are concurrences across religious and non religious perspectives on happiness that provide a common ground for further cross cultural and interreligious exploration What the book makes clear is that happiness is not a static or monolithic category It is an ongoing process of being and becoming striving and seeking living ethically and meaningfully as well as arriving at a tranquil state of being This multifaceted volume makes a fresh contribution to the contemporary study of happiness and is valuable reading for scholars and students from religious studies and theology including those interested in interreligious dialogue and the psychology of religion as well as positive psychology

Signposts - Policy and practice for teaching about religions and non-religious world views in intercultural education Robert Jackson, 2014-08-01 How can the study of religions and non religious world views contribute to intercultural education in schools in Europe An important recommendation from the Committee of Ministers of the Council of Europe Recommendation CM Rec 2008 12 on the dimension of religions and non religious convictions within intercultural education aimed to explain the nature and objectives of this form of education Signposts goes much further by providing advice to policy makers schools including teachers senior managers and governors and teacher trainers on tackling issues arising from the recommendation Taking careful account of feedback from education officials teachers and teacher trainers in Council of Europe member states Signposts gives advice for example on clarifying the terms used in this form of education developing competences for teaching and learning and working with different didactical approaches creating safe space for moderated student to student dialogue in the classroom helping students to analyse media representations of religions discussing non religious world views alongside religious perspectives handling human rights issues relating to religion and belief and linking schools including schools of different types to one another and to wider communities and organisations Signposts is not a curriculum or a policy statement It aims to give policy makers schools and teacher trainers in the Council of Europe member states as well as others who wish to use it the tools to work through the issues arising from interpretation of the recommendation to meet the needs of individual countries Signposts results from the work of an international panel of experts convened jointly by the Council of Europe and the European Wergeland Centre and is written on the group s behalf by Professor Robert Jackson

Poems of Devotion Luke Hankins, 2012-11-30 Poems of Devotion is a collection of the finest recent poems in the devotional mode which the editor examines in detail in the introductory essay The seventy seven poets collected here demonstrate the ongoing vitality of
