Daughters Of The Faith Set 2 Four Books Daughters Of The Faith Series:

Daughters of the Faith SET #2 (four books) Wendy Lawton, 2009-01-01 This package includes four books of the Daughters of Faith Series Set 2 Freedom's Pen Courage to Run The Hallelujah Lass and Ransom's Mark There are a few elements of the Daughters of Faith Series that separate it from many other children's book biographies First these books are about little girls They are not biographies of the entire life of these characters these are stories about girls who made a difference while they were still young This enables the young girl readers to relate to the characters more than they would if these characters had to wait until they were thirty or forty before doing anything significant Second these stories are faith journeys Lawton gets inside the minds of these girls in order to portray their struggles to make God an active part of their lives In Freedom's Pen Phillis Wheatley was a little girl of seven or eight years old when she was captured in Gambia and brought to America as a slave in 1761 But she didn't let her circumstances keep her down She learned to read and write in English and Latin and showed a natural gift for poetry By the time she was twelve her elegy at the death of the great pastor George Whitefield brought her worldwide acclaim Phillis became known to heads of state including George Washington himself speaking out for American independence and the end of slavery She became the first African American to publish a book and her writings would eventually win her freedom More importantly her poetry still proclaims Christ almost 250 years later In Courage to Run Harriet Tubman was born a slave on a Maryland plantation in the 1800's She trusts in God but her faith is tested at every turn Should she obey her masters or listen to her conscience This story from Harriet's childhood is a record of courage Even more it's the story of God's faithfulness as He prepares her for her adult calling to lead more than 300 people out of slavery through the Underground Railroad In The Hallelujah Lass Lawton tells the story of Eliza Shirley a 16 year old girl who traveled from England to pioneer the work of the Salvation Army in the United States As a teenager growing up in nineteenth century England Eliza was the picture of a proper young lady But she longed for more than an ordinary middle class life When a group of Hallelujah Lassies marches into Coventry with a ragtag bunch of followers singing and banging tabourines even ensuing riots cannot keep Eliza away She knows at last that this is the work God has prepared for her And she is ready no matter what the cost In Ransom's Mark when 13 year old Olive Oatman's wagon train is raided by outlaw Yavapai Indians she and her sister are captured After enduring harsh treatment they are ransomed by a band of Mohaves Olive struggles to adjust to her new life but finds comfort in her faith and in an unexpected friendship When the time comes for her to return to the white world she is afraid she will never fit in But she learns to see the Mohave design tattooed on her chin as a sign of God's love and deliverance a mark of ransom

Daughters of the Faith Set #1 (four books) Wendy Lawton, 2009-01-01 This package includes four books of the Daughters of Faith Series Set 1 The Captive Princess Shadow of his Hand The Tinker's Daughter and Almost Home There are a few elements of the Daughters of Faith Series that separate it from many other children's book biographies First these books are about little girls They are not

biographies of the entire life of these characters these are stories about girls who made a difference while they were still young This enables the young girl readers to relate to the characters more than they would if these characters had to wait until they were thirty or forty before doing anything significant Second these stories are faith journeys Lawton gets inside the minds of these girls in order to portray their struggles to make God an active part of their lives In The Captive Princess once upon a time there was an Algonquin princess named Pocahontas a curious 10 year old who loved exploring the tidewater lands of her people One day she encounters strangers a group of people that look different from her own She befriends them and when her people come into conflict with these new settlers Pocahontas steps in to save the life of one of them by offering her own Based on the true story of Pocahontas early life In Shadow of His Hand young Anita Dittman's world crumbles as Hitler begins his rise to power in Germany but because she's a Christian and only half Jewish Anita feels sure she and her family are safe from the Final Solution She couldn't have been more wrong Shadow of His Hand is an inspirational young adult historical fiction book based on the real life story of Anita Dittman a Holocaust survivor It follows her struggle against Nazi persecution and her growth in her relationship with God through the worst of times In The Tinker's Daughter John Bunyan author of Pilgrim's Progress only mentioned one of his children in his memoirs Mary Born blind her story still intrigues us today Mary developed a fierce determination for independence despite her disability after years of proving she was not hindered by her blindness Only when she admits she needs help does she tap into the Source of all strength In Almost Home the story features the pilgrims journey to America and of God's providence and provision in their journey Several of the characters mentioned in the story Mary Chilton Constance Hopkins and Elizabeth Tilley were actual passengers on the Mayflower Mary Chilton was a young girl when she left her home in Holland and traveled to America onboard the Mayflower with her parents The journey was filled with trials joys and some surprises but when she reached the New World she experienced a new life a new freedom and a new home Wendy Lawton has taken the facts of the pilgrims journey to the New World and from this information filled in personal details to create a genuine and heart warming story
