Development Of Achievement Motivation Educational Psychology:

Development of Achievement Motivation Allan Wigfield, Jacquelynne S. Eccles, 2002-02 This book discusses research and theory on how motivation changes as children progress through school gender differences in motivation and motivational differences as an aspect of ethnicity Motivation is discussed within the context of school achievement as well as athletic and musical performance Key Features Coverage of the major theories and constructs in the motivation field Focus on developmental issues across the elementary and secondary school period Discussion of instructional and theoretical issues regarding motivation Consideration of gender and ethnic differences in motivation The Development of Achievement Motivation John G. Nicholls, 1984 Achievement and Motivation Ann K. Boggiano, Thane S. Pittman, 1992 Achievement and Motivation was originally published in 1993 It provides a comprehensive review of research conducted on the topic in the late 1980s and early 1990s Most particularly it focuses on the research of those in the field who tackle the issue from a social developmental perspective Handbook of Motivation at School Kathryn R. Wentzel, David B. Miele, 2009-09-10 The Handbook of Motivation at School presents the first comprehensive and integrated compilation of theory and research on children's motivation at school It covers the major theoretical perspectives in the field as well as their application to instruction learning and social adjustment at school Key Features Comprehensive no other book provides such a comprehensive overview of theory and research on children's motivation at school Theoretical Applied the book provides a review of current motivation theories by the developers of those theories as well as attention to the application of motivation theory and research in classrooms and schools Chapter Structure chapters within each section follow a similar structure so that there is uniformity across chapters Commentaries each section ends with a commentary that provides clear directions for future research Motivational Psychology of Human Development J. Heckhausen, 2000-09-15 The idea for this book grew out of the conference Motivational Psychology of Ontogenesis held at the Max Planck Institute for Human Development in Berlin Germany in May 1998 This conference focused on the interface of development and motivation and therefore brought together scholars from three major areas in psychology developmental motivational and lifespan This combination of fields represents the potential influence of development on motivation and the potential role motivation plays in development and its major contexts of family work and school Thus contributors were chosen to apply motivational models to diverse settings of human everyday life and in various age groups across the life span ranging from early childhood to old age Handbook of Competence and Motivation, First Edition Andrew J. Elliot, Carol S. Dweck, 2013-10-15 This important handbook provides a comprehensive authoritative review of achievement motivation and establishes the concept of competence as an organizing framework for the field The editors synthesize diverse perspectives on why and how individuals are motivated in school work sports and other settings Written by leading investigators chapters reexamine central constructs in achievement motivation explore the impact of developmental contextual and sociocultural factors and analyze the role of self regulatory processes Focusing on the ways in which achievement is motivated by the desire to experience competence and avoid experiencing incompetence the volume integrates disparate theories and findings and sets forth a coherent agenda for future research EdPsych Modules Cheryl Cisero Durwin, Marla Reese-Weber, 2020-01-07 EdPsych Modules uses an innovative modular approach and case studies based on real life classroom situations to address the challenge of effectively connecting theory and research to practice Succinct stand alone modules are organized into themed units and offer instructors the flexibility to tailor the book s contents to the needs of their course The units begin with a set of case studies written for early childhood elementary middle and secondary classrooms providing students with direct insight into the dynamics influencing the future students they plan to teach All 25 modules highlight diversity emphasizing how psychological factors adapt and change based on external influences such as sex gender race language disability status and socioeconomic background The Fourth Edition includes over three hundred new references across all 25 modules and expanded coverage of diversity in new diversity related research This title is accompanied by a complete teaching and learning package Developing Achievement Motivation in Adolescents Alfred S. Alschuler, 1973 The Handbook of Life-Span Development, Volume 2, 2010-08-09 In the past fifty years scholars of human development have been moving from studying change in humans within sharply defined periods to seeing many more of these phenomenon as more profitably studied over time and in relation to other processes The Handbook of Life Span Development Volume 2 Social and Emotional Development presents the study of human development conducted by the best scholars in the 21st century Social workers counselors and public health workers will receive coverage of the social and emotional aspects of human change across the lifespan Handbook of Research on Learning and Instruction Richard E. Mayer, Patricia A. Alexander, 2016-10-04 During the past 30 years researchers have made exciting progress in the science of learning i e how people learn and the science of instruction i e how to help people learn This second edition of the Handbook of Research on Learning and Instruction is intended to provide an overview of these research advances With chapters written by leading researchers from around the world this volume examines learning and instruction in a variety of learning environments including in classrooms and out of classrooms and with a variety of learners including K 16 students and adult learners Contributors to this volume demonstrate how and why educational practice should be guided by research evidence concerning what works in instruction The Handbook is written at a level that is appropriate for graduate students researchers and practitioners interested in an evidence based approach to learning and instruction The book is divided into two sections learning and instruction The learning section consists of chapters on how people learn in reading writing mathematics science history second language and physical education as well as how people acquire the knowledge and processes required for critical thinking studying self regulation and motivation The instruction section consists of chapters on effective instructional methods feedback examples questioning tutoring visualizations simulations inquiry discussion collaboration peer modeling and adaptive instruction Each chapter in this second edition of the Handbook has been thoroughly revised to integrate recent advances in the field of educational psychology Two chapters have been added to reflect advances in both helping students develop learning strategies and using technology to individualize instruction As with the first edition this updated volume showcases the best research being done on learning and instruction by traversing a broad array of academic domains learning constructs and instructional methods
