China And Glass In America 1880-1980:

China and Glass in America, 1880-1980 Charles L. Venable, 2000-03 The rich colors of Frederick Rhead's Fiesta or the translucent beauty of Waterford crystal Russel Wright's American Modern or Haviland's White House service of 1879 the right tableware adds personality to a celebration But beyond their appeal to all who want to entertain in style and their value as collectibles china and glass wares mirror the profound cultural and economic shifts in twentieth century America and provide a unique vantage point from which to view our society

Material Culture in America Helen Sheumaker, Shirley Wajda, 2007-11-07 The first encyclopedia to look at the study of material culture objects images spaces technology production and consumption and what it reveals about historical and contemporary life in the United States Reaching back 400 years Material Life in America An Encyclopedia is the first reference showing what the study of material culture reveals about American society revelations not accessible through traditional sources and methods In nearly 200 entries the encyclopedia traces the history of artifacts concepts and ideas industries peoples and cultures cultural productions historical forces periods and styles religious and secular rituals and traditions and much more Everyone from researchers and curators to students and general readers will find example after example of how the objects and environments created or altered by humans reveal as much about American life as diaries documents and texts

Mid-Century Modernism and the American Body Kristina Wilson, 2021-04-13 The first investigation of how race and gender shaped the presentation and marketing of Modernist decor in postwar America In the world of interior design mid century Modernism has left an indelible mark still seen and felt today in countless open concept floor plans and spare geometric furnishings Yet despite our continued fascination we rarely consider how this iconic design sensibility was marketed to the diverse audiences of its era Examining advice manuals advertisements in Life and Ebony furniture art and more Mid Century Modernism and the American Body offers a powerful new look at how codes of race gender and identity influenced and were influenced by Modern design and shaped its presentation to consumers Taking us to the booming suburban landscape of postwar America Kristina Wilson demonstrates that the ideals defined by popular Modernist furnishings were far from neutral or race blind Advertisers offered this aesthetic to White audiences as a solution for keeping dirt and outsiders at bay an approach that reinforced middle class White privilege By contrast media arenas such as Ebony magazine presented African American readers with an image of Modernism as a style of comfort security and social confidence Wilson shows how etiquette and home decorating manuals served to control women by associating them with the domestic sphere and she considers how furniture by George Nelson and Charles and Ray Eames as well as smaller scale decorative accessories empowered some users even while constraining others A striking counter narrative to conventional histories of design Mid Century Modernism and the American Body unveils fresh perspectives on one of the most distinctive movements in American visual culture

California Design, 1930-1965 Living In a Modern Way Wendy Kaplan, 2011 The first comprehensive examination of

California's mid century modern design generously illustrated In 1951 designer Greta Magnusson Grossman observed that California design was not a superimposed style but an answer to present conditions It has developed out of our own preferences for living in a modern way California design influenced the material culture of the entire country in everything from architecture to fashion This generously illustrated book which accompanies a major exhibition at the Los Angeles County Museum of Art is the first comprehensive examination of California's mid century modern design It begins by tracing the origins of a distinctively California modernism in the 1930s by such European migrants as Richard Neutra Rudolph Schindler and Kem Weber it finds other specific design influences and innovations in solid color commercial ceramics inspirations from Mexico and Asia new schools for design training new concepts about leisure and the conversion of wartime technologies to peacetime use exemplified by Charles and Ray Eames's plywood and fiberglass furniture The heart of California Design is the modern California home famously characterized by open plans conducive to outdoor living The layouts of modernist homes by Pierre Koenig Craig Ellwood and Raphael Soriano for example were intended to blur the distinction between indoors and out Homes were furnished with products from Heath Ceramics Van Keppel Green and Architectural Pottery as well as other previously unheralded companies and designers Many objects were designed to be multifunctional pool and patio furniture that was equally suitable indoors lighting that was both task and ambient bookshelves that served as room dividers and bathing suits that would turn into ensembles appropriate for indoor entertainment California Design includes 350 images most in color of furniture ceramics metalwork architecture graphic and industrial design film textiles and fashion and ten incisive essays that trace the rise of the California design aesthetic of wartime technologies to peacetime use exemplified by Charles and Ray Eames's plywood and fiberglass furniture The heart of California Design is the modern California home famously characterized by open plans conducive to outdoor living The layouts of modernist homes by Pierre Koenig Craig Ellwood and Raphael Soriano for example were intended to blur the distinction between indoors and out Homes were furnished with products from Heath Ceramics Van Keppel Green and Architectural Pottery as well as other previously unheralded companies and designers Many objects were designed to be multifunctional pool and patio furniture that was equally suitable indoors lighting that was both task and ambient bookshelves that served as room dividers and bathing suits that would turn into ensembles appropriate for indoor entertainment California Design includes 350 images most in color of furniture ceramics metalwork architecture graphic and industrial design film textiles and fashion and ten incisive essays that trace the rise of the California design aesthetic and fashion and ten incisive essays that trace the rise of the California design aesthetic iders and bathing suits that would turn into ensembles appropriate for indoor entertainment California Design includes 350 images most in color of furniture ceramics metalwork architecture graphic and industrial design film textiles and fashion and ten incisive essays that trace the rise of the California design aesthetic and fashion and ten incisive essays that trace the rise of the California design aesthetic
