Egalitarian Strangeness Edward J. Hughes, 2021-04-15 Shortlisted for the 2022 R Gapper book prize The formulation egalitarian strangeness is a direct borrowing from Courtes voyages au pays du peuple Short Voyages to the Land of the People 1990 a collection of essays by the contemporary French thinker Jacques Rancière Perhaps best known for his theory of radical equality as set out in Le Maître ignorant The Ignorant Schoolmaster 1987 Rancière reflects on ways in which a hierarchical social order based on inequality can come to be unsettled In the democracy of literature for example he argues that words and sentences serve to capture any life and to make it available to any reader The present book explores embedded forms of social and cultural apportionment in a range of modern and contemporary French texts including prose fiction socially engaged commentary and autobiography while also identifying scenes of class disturbance and egalitarian encounter Part One considers the refrain of class audible in works by Claude Simon Charles Péguy Marie Ndiaye Thierry Beinstingel and Gabriel Guattari and examines how these authors practices of language connect with that refrain In Part Two Hughes analyses forms of domination and dressage with reference to Simone Weil's mid 1930s factory journal Paul Nizan's novel of class alienation Antoine Bloy from the same decade and Pierre Michon's Vies minuscules Small Lives 1984 with its focus on obscure rural lives The reflection on how these narratives draw into contiguity antagonistic identities is extended in Part Three where individual chapters on Proust and the contemporary authors Françoise Bon and Didier Eribon demonstrate ways in which enduring forms of cultural distribution are both consolidated and contested
