Non-prototypical Clefts in French Lena Karssenberg, 2018-09-24 This monograph is the first large scale corpus analysis of French il y a clefts While most research on clefts focusses on the English prototypical it cleft and its equivalents across languages this study examines the lesser known il y a clefts of both presentational eventive and specificational type and provides an in depth analysis of their syntactic semantic and discourse functional properties In addition to an extensive literature review and a comparison with Italian c clefts and with French c est clefts the strength of the study lies in the critical approach it develops to the common definition of clefts Several commonly used criteria for clefts are applied to the corpus data revealing that these criteria often lead to ambiguous results The reasons for this ambiguity are explored thus leading to a better understanding of what constitutes a cleft In this sense the analysis will be of interest to specialists of Romance and non Romance clefts alike Learning Rates of Electric Vehicles Andreas Zerfaß,2017-11-01

Governments of many countries consider the electrification of individual passenger transport as a suitable strategy to decrease oil dependency and reduce transport related carbon dioxide CO2 and air pollutant emissions However battery electric vehicles BEVs and plug in hybrid electric vehicles PHEVs have been more expensive than their conventional counterparts and suffer from relatively short electric driving ranges which still hampers the market potential of these vehicles Despite persisting shortfalls mechanisms such as technological learning and economics of scale promise to improve the techno economic performance of BEVs and PHEVs in the short to mid term Here the author seeks to obtain insight into the techno economic prospects of BEVs and PHEVs by i establishing experience curves and ii quantifying user costs and the costs of mitigating carbon dioxide and air pollutant emissions in a time series analysis The analysis captures the situation in Germany between 2010 and 2016 Existential Constructions across Languages Laure Sarda,Ludovica Lena,2023-07-15

This volume reflects the centrality of the existential construction in current linguistic research and offers studies that both consolidate and challenge established research agendas It addresses i a variety of constructions related to prototypical existentials including the have possessive construction and investigates ii the relationships between locative existential and information structure iii the quantification of the pivot and iv the issue of negative existentials It brings together different and complementary approaches functional cognitive pragmatic typological comparative diachronic philosophical based on a wide variety of data sources The contributions illustrate how the so called existential construction can take a variety of forms more or less grammaticalized and functions ranging from the expression of literal existence to that of localization and discursive focus in a wide range of languages The book will be valuable for linguists researchers or students interested in the cross linguistic manifestations of existential constructions at the interface between syntax semantics and information structure
