McCarroll,2020-11-24 Christian Theology after Christendom Engaging the Thought of Douglas John Hall brings together contemporary thinkers to engage and build upon Douglas John Hall s work and to take up his challenge to reclaim a contextual and decolonizing theology of the cross as a means to speak to the realities of life and faith today With a focus on contemporary issues this edited collection critically analyzes and deconstructs the centuries old colonial triumphalism of Christian theology and the church in the West This book seeks to frame present day crises in ways that honor a deeply rooted theologia crucis that does not colonize the other It explores constructive decolonizing possibilities for Christian theology at the end of Christendom Glimpsing Resurrection

Deanna Thompson,2018-07-31 In Glimpsing Resurrection Deanna A Thompson combines recent trauma research with compelling first person narrative to provide insight into the traumatic dimensions of living with a serious illness Her aim is to help those who are ill and those who care for and minister to them deepen their understanding of how best to offer support The tendency for Christians to move almost immediately from death to proclamations of new life risks alienating those for whom healing and new life seem out of reach says Thompson Glimpsing Resurrection focuses less on the why to help readers instead come to terms with the how of living with a serious disease In particular Thompson provides a framework and concrete suggestions for how to be a church where those who are undone by illness can be undone as well as a place that can love and support them to hope
