Johannine Social Identity Formation after the Fall of the Jerusalem Temple Christopher A. Porter, 2021-10-25 In Johannine Social Identity Formation after the Fall of the Jerusalem Temple Christopher Porter reads the Fourth Gospel through the lens of social identity theory as means of reconciling the social dislocation and trauma of the destruction of the Jerusalem temple Analysing the Fourth Gospel in conversation with other temple removed texts of Qumran Philo and Josephus the gospel's intent to renegotiate cultic life without the temple can be seen Through this analysis it is argued that the Fourth Gospel primarily functions as an intra mural Jewish text attempting to negotiate the formation of a Jesus follower social identity in direct continuity with earlier Jewish shared social narratives Finally this work reviews the Johannine Community as an outcome of the Gospel identity formation

African American Novels in the Black Lives Matter Era E. Lâle Demirtürk,2019-08-09 African American Novels in the Black Lives Matter Era Transgressive Performativity of Black Vulnerability as Praxis in Everyday Life explores the undoing of whiteness by black people who dissociate from scripts of black criminality through radical performative reiterations of black vulnerability It studies five novels that challenge the embodied discursive practices of whiteness in interracial social encounters showing how they use strategic performances of Blackness to enable subversive practices in everyday life which is constructed and governed by white mechanisms of racialized control The agency portrayed in these novels opens up alternative spaces of Blackness to impact the social world and effects transformative change as a forceful critique of everyday life African American Novels in the Black Lives Matter Era shows how these novels reformulate the problem of black vulnerability as a constitutive source of the right to life in their refusal of subjection to vulnerability enacted by white institutional and individual forms of violence It positions a white black encounter oriented reading of these neo resistance novels of the Black Lives Matter era as a critique of everyday life in an effort to explore spaces of radical performativity of blackness to make happen social change and transformation The Creative Woman ,1993 Uncanny Bodies Scott T. overview of black superheroes and Afrocentric treatments of black white relations in US superhero comics since the 1960s ImageText Journal Winner American Book Award Before Columbus Foundation Super Black places the appearance of black superheroes alongside broad and sweeping cultural trends in American politics and pop culture which reveals how black superheroes are not disposable pop products but rather a fascinating racial phenomenon through which futuristic expressions and fantastic visions of black racial identity and symbolic political meaning are presented Adilifu Nama sees the value and finds new avenues for exploring racial identity in black superheroes who are often dismissed as sidekicks imitators of established white heroes or are accused of having no role outside of blaxploitation film contexts Nama examines seminal black comic book superheroes such as Black Panther Black Lightning Storm Luke Cage Blade the Falcon Nubia and others some of whom also appear on the small and large screens as well as how the imaginary black superhero has come to life in the image of President Barack Obama Super Black explores how black superheroes are a powerful source of racial meaning narrative and imagination in American society that express a myriad of racial assumptions political perspectives and fantastic re imaginings of black identity The book also demonstrates how these figures overtly represent or implicitly signify social discourse and accepted wisdom concerning notions of racial reciprocity equality forgiveness and ultimately racial justice A refreshingly nuanced approach Nama complicates the black superhero by also seeing the ways that they put issues of post colonialism race poverty and identity struggles front and center Rain Taxi Vampire Literature Robin A.
