A Cat Tree Inspired
by Nature

CATS:
Emily & Kirby

a place to perch

"The nature inspired cat tree came about when my 'children' Emily & Kirby moved with us to our new house and realized it did not come furnished with anything at all like their beloved 'long tall well-stuffed things' from the old house, which they had used to sleep, sleep, and play on ALL THE TIME. They were already a little grumpy because we had so rudely removed it when we listed the house for sale.

At the new house, the cats were spending the whole day sleeping, lounging, and waiting in a back office room where I was working, and not having to get exercise or explore—what?!, as their design/perch/lie, wanted to remedy. Thus

I was planning to start using a larger, brighter, more central room of the new house for my office. I definitely wanted to integrate the cats' needs into that new space. Emily said she didn't really care HOW it looked like, as long as it was comfy, easy for her to climb, and "near where you work during the day so I can get lots of snuggles." Kirby blinched and agreed that yes, he WOULD be getting a little rubdown from both of us, and would at least THINK about using the cat tree!
