O'Kane, 1977 Clear the Bridge! Richard O'Kane, 2011-07-06 The story of Tang and her gallant crew ranks with the most amazing of naval history Whether rescuing Navy fliers off Truk or stalking enemy convoys off Japan Tang carried the war to the enemy with unparalleled ferocity Tang's skipper on all five of her war patrols Rear Admiral Richard H O Kane is acknowledged as the top submarine skipper of World War II His personal decorations include three Navy Crosses and the Congressional Medal of Honor He retired as a rear admiral from his command of the Submarine School rounding out twenty years with the boats He also wrote the classic Wahoo The Patrols of America's Most Famous WWII Submarine Praise for Clear the Bridge There is no doubt that Tang was the best Most of the rest of us wondered what it was she had that the others didn't And here it is in this extraordinary tell it as it really happened book written by the most daring most professional submarine skipper of the war Capt Edward Beach author of Run Silent Run Deep A classic of naval literature A stirring tribute not only to Richard O Kane's gallant crew but to all World War II submariners Michael D Hull Military Magazine Reading of Tang's career and of the men aboard her is one of the great reading experiences of my life Broox Sledge The Book World Richard O'Kane: The Commander of the USS Tang Elysia Frostborne, 2025-10-30 He commanded from the depths He endured long after the lights went out Commander Richard H O Kane walked into every patrol believing that preparation matters more than luck In the steel confines of the USS Tang he proved it Across five war patrols in the Pacific under pressure most men never face he became the most successful U S submarine skipper of World War II His reward was a Medal of Honor His cost was a ship and eighty men This biography traces the full arc of his journey from New Hampshire boy to submarine legend from zero hour periscope scans to the ocean's cold embrace from escape gear on the seabed to prisoner of war camps thousands of miles from home Inside you ll discover How O Kane chose and trained his crew to perform flawlessly in midnight surface attacks The deadly tactics that sank more ships than any other submarine in a single patrol The final moments of Tang a torpedo malfunction a rapid sinking and a captain s calm command in the midst of disaster The months in Japanese captivity the mental endurance required to survive and the quiet leadership that never left him Post war life his first hand books and the ways modern submariners still study his methods as leadership lessons This isn t just a war story It s a blueprint for excellence under pressure It s about trust preparation and leadership when nothing goes as planned and everything depends on your next move If you ve ever asked how people keep calm when the stakes are life and death if you ve ever wondered how quiet leaders matter more than loud ones this is a story worth your time This is the story of Richard H O Kane And it begins where the surface ends The Depths of Courage Flint Whitlock,Ron Smith,2008-11-04 Chosen by WWII History magazine as one of the Best Books of the Year In the dark days after Pearl Harbor the small illequipped arm of the Navy known as Submarine Force would stand between the shattered U S Pacific Fleet and the might of the Japanese Navy Unfortunately the spirit and courage of the Submarine Force is being forgotten as the veterans of that force pass into history To preserve their heroic tales of war beneath the sea critically acclaimed author and military historian Flint Whitlock in collaboration with decorated World War II submarine veteran Ron Smith set out on a journey of more than two years to interview submariners and to record their accounts before the memories of their endeavors are lost forever These are their stories World War II at Sea Craig L. Symonds,2018-04-02 Craig L Symonds World War II at Sea offers a definitive naval history of the Second World War presenting the chronology of the naval war from The London Conference of 1930 to the surrender in Tokyo Bay in 1945 on a global scale for the first time Iron Men and Tin Fish Anthony Newpower,2006-08-30 From the American entry into World War II until September 1943 U S submarines experienced an abnormally high number of torpedo failures These failures resulted from three defects present in the primary torpedo of the day the Mark XIV These defects were a tendency to run deeper than the set depth the frequent premature detonation of the Mark 6 magnetic influence exploder and the failure of the contact exploder when hitting a target at the textbook ninety degree angle Ironically despite using a completely independent design the Germans experienced the same three defects The Germans however fixed their defects in six months while it took the Americans twenty two months Much of the delay on the American side resulted from the denial of senior leaders in the operational forces and in the Navy s Bureau of Ordnance BuOrd that the torpedo itself was defective Instead they blamed crews for poor marksmanship or lack of training In the end however the submarine force itself overcame the bureaucratic inertia and correctly identified and fixed the three problems on their own proving once again the industry of the average American soldier or sailor From the American entry into World War II until September 1943 U S submarines experienced an abnormally high number of torpedo failures These failures resulted from three defects present in the primary torpedo of the day the Mark XIV These defects were a tendency to run deeper than the set depth the frequent premature detonation of the magnetic influence exploder and the failure of the contact exploder when hitting a target at the textbook 90 degree angle Ironically despite using a completely independent design the Germans experienced the same three defects The Germans however fixed their defects in six months while it took the Americans 22 months Much of the delay on the American side resulted from the denial of senior leaders in the operational forces and in the Navy's Bureau of Ordnance BuOrd that the torpedo itself was defective Instead they blamed crews for poor marksmanship or lack of training In the end however the submarine force itself overcame the bureaucratic inertia and correctly identified and fixed the three problems on their own proving once again the industry of the average American soldier or sailor Contrary to the interpretations of most submarine historians this book concludes that BuOrd did not sit idly by while torpedoes failed on patrol after patrol BuOrd acknowledged problems from early in the war but their processes and their tunnel vision prevented them from realizing that the weapon sent to the fleet was grossly defective One of World War II's forgotten heroes Admiral Lockwood drove the process for finding and fixing the three major defects This is first book that deals exclusively with the torpedo problem building its case out of original research from the archives of the Bureau of Ordnance the Chief of Naval Operations Vice Admiral Lockwood's personal correspondence and records from the British Admiralty at the National Archives of the United Kingdom These sources are complemented by correspondence and interviews with men who actually participated in the events

Beneath the Waves Edward Finch, 2010-04-15 Capt Edward Ned Latimer Beach Jr USN is known primarily for his bestselling novel Run Silent Run Deep which was made into a film in 1958 with Clark Gable and Burt Lancaster and his record setting voyage as commanding officer of USS Triton SSN R 586 that was the first submarine to circumnavigate of the globe while submerged A highly decorated United States Navy submarine officer during World War II he participated in the Battle of Midway as well as other 12 combat patrols earning 10 decorations for gallantry including the Navy Cross His career also offers insights into the inner workings of power from inside the Pentagon in the years right after World War II to inside of the Eisenhower White House to the politics of the Republican Party in the United States Senate in the 1970s In addition to serving as an officer aboard U S submarines in the Pacific during World War II he was a prolific author publishing two novels in addition Run Silent Run Deep as well as numerous works on naval history Ned Beach is a biography that weaves together the personal professional and writing life of a man who for many was the public face of the submarine community in the years after the Second World War With a father who was a naval officer and the author of thirteen published novels in the 1910s 20s as the eldest son Ned Beach was greatly influenced to follow in his father's footsteps and to become both an officer and a writer From his youth in Palo Alto California during the Great Depression to his service in the Pacific in the war against Japan to the epic submerged circumnavigation of the globe in early 1960 commanding one of the early nuclear powered submarines Ned Beach's career encompasses a revolutionary period in American naval history Not only did he experience it he wrote about it This book tells the story of his remarkable life career and writing Presumed Lost Stephen Moore, 2009-10-01 When submarines failed to return to port from patrol they were officially listed by the Navy as overdue and presumed lost Loved ones were notified by the War Department that their siblings spouses and sons were missing in action and presumed lost While 52 U S submarines were sunk in the Pacific the Japanese took prisoners of war from the survivors of only seven of these lost submarines Presumed Lost is the compelling story of the final patrols of those seven submarines and the long captivity of the survivors Of the 196 sailors taken prisoner 158 would survive the horrors of the POW camps where torture starvation and slave labor were common This is the most complete and accurate record of their captivity experiences ever compiled Author Stephen L Moore draws on personal interviews with the survivors as well as on diaries family archives and POW statements to reveal new details and correct longstanding errors in previously published accounts Moore s research brought to light the following facts Most crewmen from USS Perch endured 1 298 days of captivity without their families ever being told that they were still alive The Perch and USS Grenadier were so badly damaged by enemy depth charge attacks that their crews were forced to scuttle their ships USS Sculpin and USS S 44 went down fighting with only forty two men from the Sculpin being taken prisoner and half of them perishing on the way to Japan USS Tang and USS Tullibee victims of their own faulty circling torpedoes had few survivors five of whom managed to escape from the sunken burning Tang when it was 180 feet below the ocean surface As many as six men survived the loss of USS Robalo after it struck a mine off Palawan but none of those survived the prison camps The book includes dozens of rare photos of the POWs many of which have never before been published Appendices include final muster rolls of the seven submarines and a complete list of the U S submariners who were held as POWs with details of their various camps of internment
