 Mister The Twin Towers in Film Randy Laist, 2020-02-13 For thirty years the twin towers of the World Trade Center soared above the New York City skyline eventually becoming one of the most conspicuous symbolic structures in the world They appeared in hundreds of films from Godspell and Death Wish to Trading Places Ghostbusters and The Usual Suspects
 The politicians architects and engineers who developed the towers sought to imbue them with a powerful visual presence The resulting buildings provided filmmakers with imposing set pieces capable of conveying a range of moods and associations from the sublime and triumphal to the sinister and paranoid While they stood they captured the imagination of the world with their enigmatic symbolism In their dramatic destruction they became icons of a history that is still being written Here viewed in the context of popular cinema the twin towers are emblematic of how architecture film and narrative interact to express cultural aspirations and anxieties The Oxford Companion to Fairy Tales Jack Zipes, 2015 This Oxford companion provides an authoritative reference source for fairy tales exploring the tales themselves both ancient and modern the writers who wrote and reworked them and related topics such as film art opera and even advertising The Seduction of Pessimism in the Novel Tom Ribitzky, 2024-10-31 The Seduction of Pessimism in the Novel Eros Futility and the Quarrel with Philosophy explores the novel as a response to the Platonic myth that narrates the rift at the core of our being Eros is supposedly the consolation for this rift but the history of the novel documents its expression as one of frustrated desires neuroses anxieties and cosmic doom As if repeating the trauma from that original split in Plato a split that also divides philosophy from literature the novel treats eros as a site of loss and grief from the medieval romances to Goethe Emily Brontë Proust Mann Woolf D H Lawrence and Nabokov The pessimism that emerges from this eros tells us something fundamental about who we are something that only the novel can say At a time when both education and leisure are increasingly ignoring the novel's imperative to sit with ambiguity complexity and contingency and as we are hurtling toward a bleak future of climate catastrophe and political instability the novel is one of the last bastions of humanity even as it is quickly being eroded Re-doing Rapunzel's Hair Lisa Pavlik-Malone, 2014-04-23 This volume presents an exploration of the role of embodied cognition in creating personal imaginative renditions of hair that also distally relate to the symbolic significance of the fairytale character Rapunzel's hair in terms of physical life romantic life spiritual life and psychic life respectively Integral to this relation is the author's idea of fancifold which is a quality or state of the imagination that can produce unique neuropsychological elements of enchantment and disenchantment entwined This book will be of interest to scholars and other researchers concerned with how cognition including psychology and the brain psychology and literature psychology and art philosophy of mind and metaphor might relate specifically to understanding the subjective experience of hair
