Comment Notre Monde Devenu Chr Tien:

The Making of the Abrahamic Religions in Late Antiquity Guy G. Stroumsa, 2015-07-30 This book presents how ancient Christianity must be understood from the viewpoint of the history of religions in late antiquity The continuation of biblical prophecy runs like a thread from Jesus through Mani to Muhammad And yet this thread arguably the single most important characteristic of the Abrahamic movement often remains outside the mainstream hidden as it were since it generates heresy The figures of the Gnostic the Holy man and the mystic are all sequels of the Israelite prophet They reflect a mode of religiosity that is characterized by high intensity It is centripetal and activist by nature and emphasizes sectarianism and polemics esoteric knowledge or gnosis and charisma The other mode of religiosity obviously much more common than the first one is centrifugal and irenic It favours an ecumenical attitude contents itself with a widely shared faith or pistis and reflects in Weberian parlance the routinisation of the new religious movement This is the mode of priests and bishops rather than that of martyrs and holy men These two main modes of religion high versus low intensity exist simultaneously and cross the boundaries of religious communities They offer a tool permitting us to follow the transformations of religion in late antiquity in general and in ancient Christianity in particular without becoming prisoners of the traditional categories of Patristic literature Through the dialectical relationship between these two modes of religiosity one can follow the complex transformations of ancient Christianity in its broad religious context

Bremmer, 2010 The rise of Christianity up to the victory of Constantine has often been studied and remains a puzzling phenomenon In this valedictory lecture Jan N Bremmer concentrates on the explanations adduced focusing in particular on the works of three iconic figures from the last two hundred and fifty years The History of the Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire of Edward Gibbon the most famous ancient historian of all time at the end of the eighteenth century Die Mission und Ausbreitung des Christentums of Adolf von Harnack the greatest historian of early Christianity of all time around 1900 and The Rise of Christianity of Rodney Stark the most adventurous sociologist of religion of our times at the end of the twentieth century Bremmer locates their concerns and explanations within their own times but also takes them seriously as scholars discussing their analyses and approaches In this way he shows both the continuities and the innovations in the evolving view which scholarship presents of early Christianity Bremmer's exceptional knowledge of the huge range of scholarship and his humane and balanced judgment make this lecture the ideal introduction to the many problems raised by Christianity's displacement of paganism Translating the Relics of St James Antón M.
