Committed To The State Asylum Committed To The State Asylum:

Committed to the State Asylum James E. Moran, 2001-01-01 Unlike other studies Committed to the State Asylum shows the important role that the community played in shaping the asylum and tackles the thorny issue of state development explaining how state asylums developed differently in each province He considers Canada s pioneering institutional efforts at dealing with the criminally insane and why those efforts lasted only a short time shedding new light on the debate about the nature and extent of state involvement in nineteenth century Canadian society Committed to the State Asylum offers new insights into the ways in which both ordinary families and the state understood and responded to those they thought had crossed the boundaries of sane behaviour Insane and Feeble-minded in Institutions, 1910 United States. Bureau of the Census, 1914 This report is based upon a special census of the inmates of hospitals for the insane and of institutions for the feeble minded taken in the year 1910 The results of that census have already been published in a series of statistical tables appearing as Bulletin 119 of the publications of this bureau The report herewith submitted reproduces these tables and in addition contains a discussion of the statistics with tables presenting ratios and percentages It contains also a summarization of the laws relative to the care of the insane The report was prepared in the Division of Revision and Results under the direction of Joseph A Hill expert special agent assisted by Mr Lewis Meriam Letter of transmittal page 7 Reports of Cases Determined in the Supreme Court of the State of California California.
