class citizen in academia relegated to a position of low below a culture deemed high and worthy of scholarly inquiry This eclectic collection of essays aims to convince that this inequality must be addressed by exploring a variety of supposedly low cultural types and texts through an academic lens proving that so called low culture can be a valuable contribution to academic research That said raising the low does not mean making it high turning it into an elite category to be accessed only by experts Rather the authors are unswerving in their approach that academic writing and fan writing are not mutually exclusive On the contrary it is their knowledge and passion as fans of their subject matter that has inspired their chapters all of which draw upon their considerable experience of engaging as fans in what they discuss All the chapters have been written by postgraduate students seeking to inspire a new empiricism through which their interests might be fully pursued in their futures as scholars Emma Buchanan is a British postgraduate researcher and television fan who is currently writing up her PhD thesis on the topic of gender and change in AMC s The Walking Dead as understood from the point of view of Jungian depth psychology

Americana Knut Holtsträter, Sascha Pöhlmann, 2024 The essay collection Americana poses the basic question of how American music can be described and analyzed as such as American music Situated at the intersection between musicology and American Studies the essays focus on the categories of aesthetics authenticity and performance in order to show how popular music is made American from Alaskan hip hop to German Schlager from Creedence Clearwater Revival to film scores from popular opera to U2 from the Rolling Stones to country rap and from Steve Earle to the Trans Chorus of Los Angeles

Indian Popular Fiction Prem Kumari Srivastava, Mona Sinha, 2021-11-24 The scholarly essays in this book open up experimental and novel spaces and genres beyond the traditional and the literary world of Indian Popular Fiction as it existed towards the end of the last millennium They respond to the possibilities opened up by the technology driven and internet savvy reading and writing world of today Contemporaneous and bold most of the essays resonate with the racy and fast paced milieu and social media space inhabited by today's youth. Combative in its drift, this book makes possible an attempt to disband hierarchies and dismantle categories that have engulfed the expansive landscape of Indian Popular Fiction for too long. It facilitates discussion on graphic novels, microfiction, popular entertainment, and political satire on television and celluloid; social media-driven romances existing in the domain of the real rather than that of fantasy and mythological readings against the backdrop of gender and politics. Aimed at facilitating further research by scholars and enthusiasts of Indian Popular Fiction, this book is also an ode to the current trends generated by social and internet media cosmos. This book is co-published with Aakar Books, New Delhi. Taylor & Francis does not sell or distribute the print versions of this book in India, Pakistan, Nepal, Bhutan, Bangladesh, and Sri Lanka.
