Desultoria ,2018-01-13 Excerpt from Desultoria The Recovered Mss Of an Eccentric From the account of this person he seems to have gone as usual to his boat and with the unfaltering resolution to decide his fate for he saw him with perfect calmness step into the boat and then shove off from the shore as usual From the appearance of the body and the boat the old man conjectured that he must have seated himself on the side of the boat then Opened both femoral arteries and presently through faintness fallen over into the stream and was after left on the shore by the tide and not far from where the boat had oated The old man dug him a grave in the sand on the shore and thinking the world cared not to hear the melancholy tale kept it to himself He walked with me down to the shore that he might point out the grave of the unfortunate young man marked by a stone I would have left him in silence and in his sacred thought but he turned and pressed me to return sometimes and see him About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Bibliotheca Americana ,1850 Bibliotheca Americana Orville Augustus Roorbach,1850
