provocative book Ramesh Srinivasan describes the internet as both an enabler of frictionless efficiency and a dirty tangle of politics economics and other inefficient inharmonious human activities We may love the immediacy of Google search results the convenience of buying from Amazon and the elegance and power of our Apple devices but it s a one way top down process We re not asked for our input or our opinions only for our data The internet is brought to us by wealthy technologists in Silicon Valley and China It s time Srinivasan argues that we think in terms beyond the Valley Srinivasan focuses on the disconnection he sees between designers and users producers and consumers and tech elites and the rest of us The recent Cambridge Analytica and Russian misinformation scandals exemplify the imbalance of a digital world that puts profits before inclusivity and democracy In search of a more democratic internet Srinivasan takes us to the mountains of Oaxaca East and West Africa China Scandinavia North America and elsewhere visiting the design labs of rural low income and indigenous people around the world He talks to a range of high profile public figures including Elizabeth Warren David Axelrod Eric Holder Noam Chomsky Lawrence Lessig and the founders of Reddit as well as community organizers labor leaders and human rights activists To make a better internet Srinivasan says we need a new ethic of diversity openness and inclusivity empowering those now excluded from decisions about how technologies are designed who profits from them and who are surveilled and exploited by them English Writers Henry Morley,1889 Congressional Record United States.
